TARAMACA Donatha

I, CLEARS

When the Smoke Clears

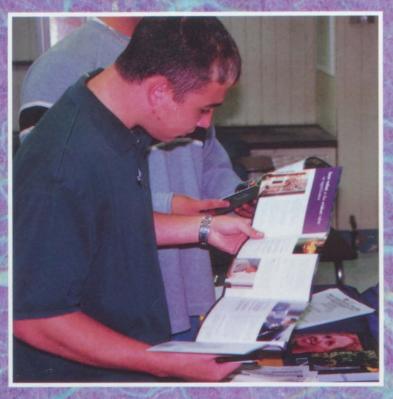

Sparking Interest
Melting Together
One to Glow On
Kicking Up Ashes
Extinguishing the Flames

pg. 4 pg. 38 pg. 56 pg. 82 pg. 112

Brody Honeycutt looks at information from University of North Alabama to see if that is the college for him! College day was a big success again this year.

Gathering Kindle

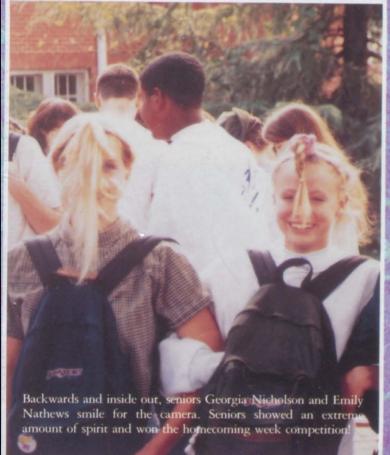

onstruction, Construction, Construc-Tition! That was the most common word used here throughout the year. By August, the renovation of the auditorium and Alice Boyd building had begun. Construction workers came in with hard hats on, ready to go to work. Equipment and hazaardous zones took up most of the parking lot. leaving upset students. The February. It will have staparking dilema was solved tionary seats, dressing by the city police allowing students to park on yellow curbs. Dump trucks un- the Moonlight Players will loaded tons of gravel into have a great place to perthe auditorium. This created an even bigger mess!

▲ The new auditorium is expected to be finished in rooms, a bigger stage and better lighting. Finally, form. A With all the new additions, doors, mats, auditorium, ramps and freshman, the school looked wonderful when the smoke cleared!

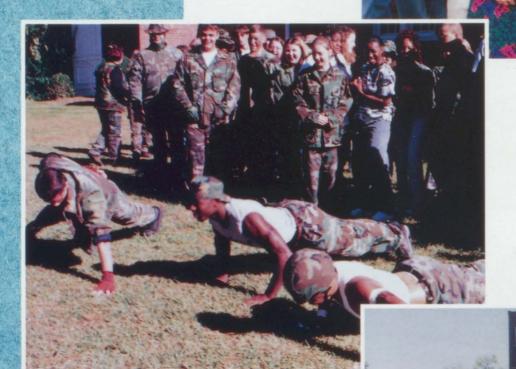

Sparking Interest

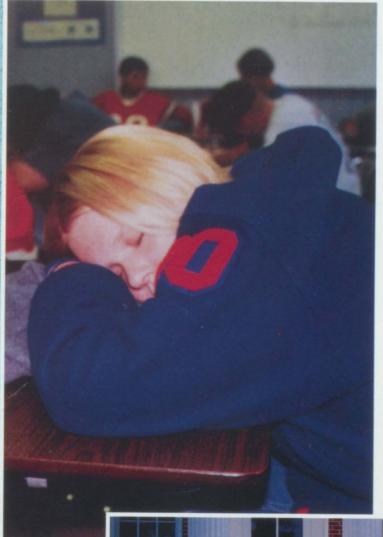

Courtney Brasher stands 'backwards' while friends look on with a smirk. Backwards Day was a hit during Homecoming Week.

Seniors show off their muscles after making a big entry on Character Day. The Seniors' efforts were rewarded by winning first place in the competition.

SHOW YOUR SPIRIT, MONTEVALLO! THE WHOLE TOWN COMES ALIVE IN A BURST OF SPIRIT AS THE HOME-COMING WEEK COMES TO AN END. MONTEVALLO ELEMENTARY, MIDDLE, AND HIGH SCHOOL SHOWED UP AT THE ANNUAL PEP RALLY ON FRIDAY OCTOBER 23.

he people at this school had it burning brightly with a personality all of its own. It was heated up with Flaming Freshmen, Sizzlin' Sophomores, Fuming Juniors, and Smoking Seniors. While the renovation of the school was taking place, a new pride was discovered by faculty and students. By being involved in student activities such as sports, academics, and community service, kids showed their "Sparking Interest."

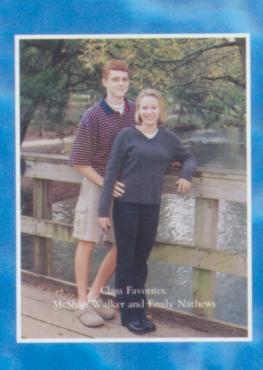

Hillary Franklin is letting her fire be dormant. Twelfth graders tended to get "Senioritis" this year.

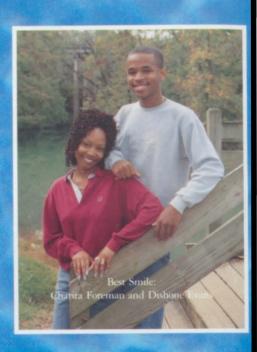

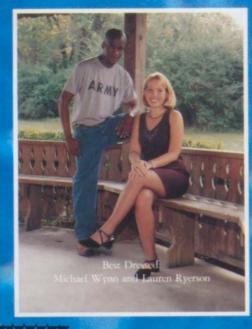

Toga! Toga! The Junior class chose to dress as the Romans for Character Day. For showing their support in wearing their togas eleventh grade received second place.

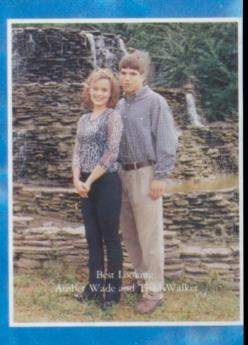

Where There's Smoke

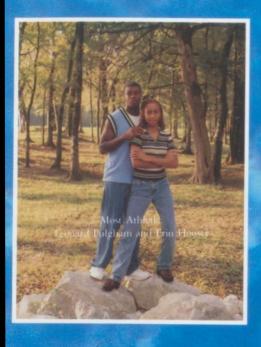

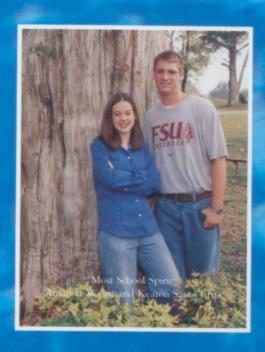

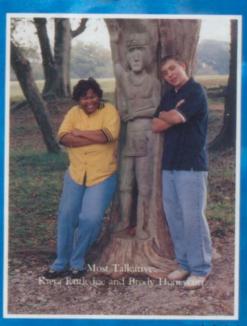

... There's Fire

Class of

Party

1999

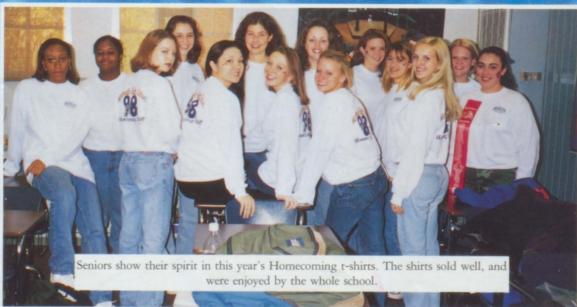

Time!!

Smokin's Seniors

or eleven years we have been forced to wake ourselves up, get to school by eight'o'clock, and suffer through classes. Yet, somehow doing these activities together have made them less tedious. The point is that we have grown up together through the good and the bad. As we look back at the memories and pictures from elementary and middle school, we realize how much we have grown up, and how different we are now. Some of the most memorable experiences have been spent together, including the fifth grade play, DeSoto caverns, and winning Homecoming week. Graduating together is the final firework to our years of memories.

Joe Adams

Jessica Ballentine

Kristy Barnett

Charlotte Bouldin

Jennifer Bowden

Joey Brantley

Shelley Brasher

Kim Bright

Melissa Church

Latonya Conwell

Keith Czeskleba

April Dailey

Steve Davis

Michelle Devall

Angela Donahue

Erin Dover Seniors

Gina Dutton

Jennifer Eaton

Amir Ebrahimi

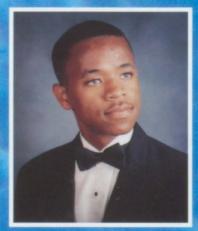

Eddie Edwards

Taneka Edwards

Tracy Ennis

Dishone Evans

Hillary Franklin

Erica Frazier

Presley Gilmore

Robert Gouge

Brandon Graham

Andrea Hall

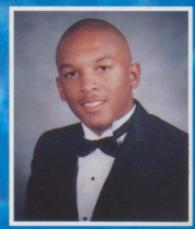

Seniors

Keisha Harrell

Alicia Harris

Kyle Henderson

Lauren Hendon

Erin Houser

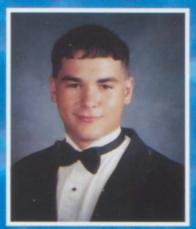

Bryant Hudson

Telisha Huff

Timothy Johns

Eric Jones

Natalia Jones

Reshun Jones

Emily Kemp

Kristie Lawley

Markela Lawley

Perry Lawley

Heather Lougher

Ketwanna Lucius

Ebony Mason

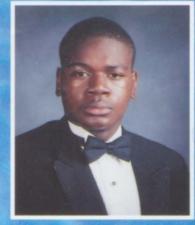

Stephanie McCord Seniors

Michael McGraw

Willie McNeal

Jermaine Mitchell

Jeremy Molay

Christy Moore

Jenny Moore

Dollie Motes

Katherine Nalley

Emily Nathews

Amanda Nesmith

Melissa Northcutt

Eric Pickett

Stacy Pickett

Seniors

Keith Pridgen

Rene Ross

Lauren Ryerson

DeWayne Sailes

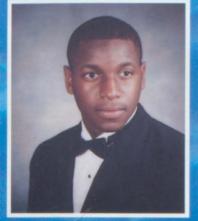

Keaton Santa Cruz

Barbara Simcik

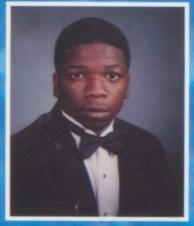

Donny Sisco

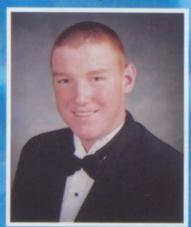

Travis Smith

Wendy Smith

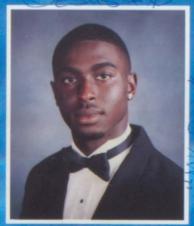

Ron Stallworth

Brian Stano

Steven Stano

Renaldo Sumerlin

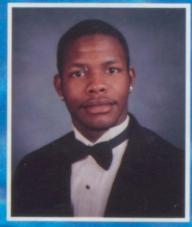

Audrey Taylor

Kelly Thompson

Grace Tingle

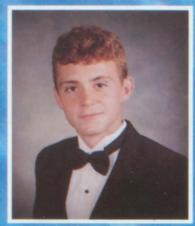

Frank Tolbert

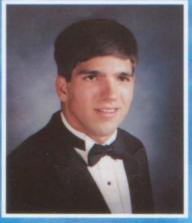

Yteria Tolbert

Amber Wade
Seniors 15

McShan Walker

Thad Walker

Andrea Williams

Melissa Williams

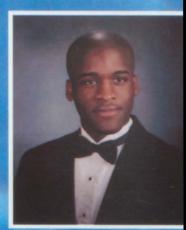

Rhonda Williams

Heather Winslett

Amanda Wyatt

Michael Wynn

Senior cheerleaders gather around before the parade. (Left to Right): Tracy Ennis, Jessica Ballentine, Kim Bright, and Charlotte Bouldin.

Seniors cheer on their fellow classmates during Character Day! They won the day with their outstanding performance as the Army!

Senior girls dress up as the Spice Girls! From left to right: Andrea Lilly (Scary), Charlotte Bouldin (Posh), Georgia Nicholson (Baby), Tracy Ennis (Sporty), and Lauren Ryerson (Ginger).

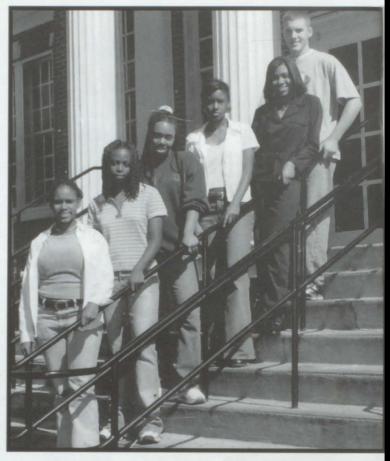

Smoldering Juniors

s the school year progressed, the class of 2000 got fired up with the hopes of having a great Junior year. Although they had one more year of high school left, many were beginning to prepare for their future. From buying class rings to taking the SAT or ACT, Juniors had several things to spark their interest. They got to experience the Exit Exam, as well as have the opportunity to attend the Prom. Overall, the year was packed with new and exciting things. Junior Tiffany Noble said it best with, "Although it was very stressful it was a lot of fun."

Class Officers (left to right): Fallon Brantley, Taminika Spruel, Tomika Lilly, Olin, Thompson, Tiffany Goldsmith, and Cory Horton.

P.J. Adams

Wesley Barnes

Curtis Barnett

Liz Barrow

Steven Blackmon

Adam Bearden

Stefanie Bock

Kevin Boyd

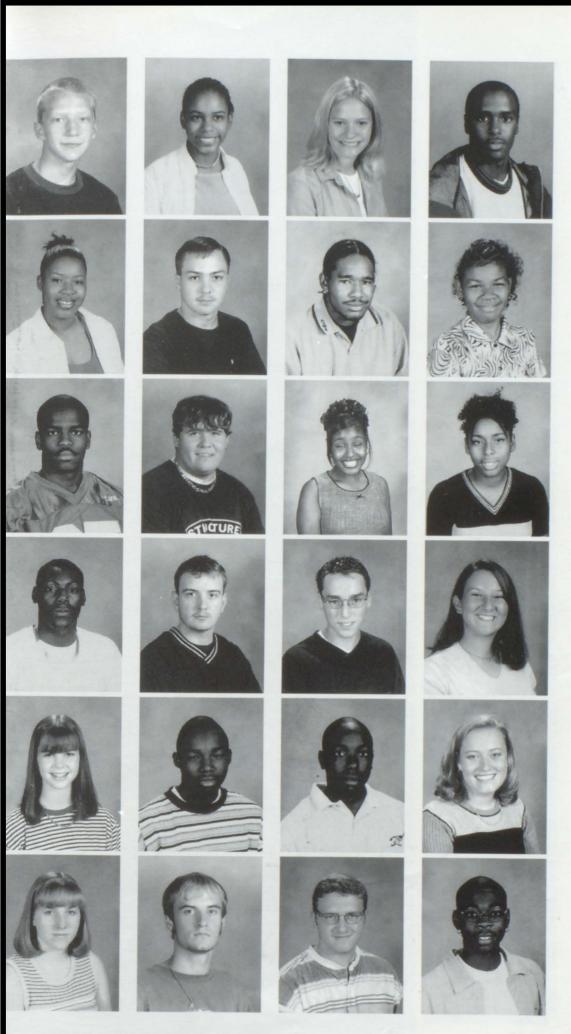

Billy Bradshaw Fallon Brantley Courtney Brasher Adrian Brown Pamela Brown Jason Carlee Tierra Cathey Tasha Cardwell Patrick Chappell Seth Chase LaTonya Coleman Anitra Cutts Darien Cutts Hank Epperson Jeremy Evans Brandy Daily Kelly Damon Jarvis Davis Seneca Davis Holly Dickson Hannah Fletcher

Brian Ford

Jason Fullerton

Aireal Goins

Matt Golden
Tiffany Goldsmith
Verrick Green

Brittany Hall Katie Hall

Jerry Hagood

Laura Harrell
Colby Heath

Ray Heard

Brandon Hendrix

Cory Holcomb

Lacy Horsely

Cory Horton

Robert Hope

Jason Houser

Brandon Hunt

Sandra Jacks Monique Jones

Jerrad Kamerer

Sandra Kemp

Amber Lackey

Josh Lawley

James Lee

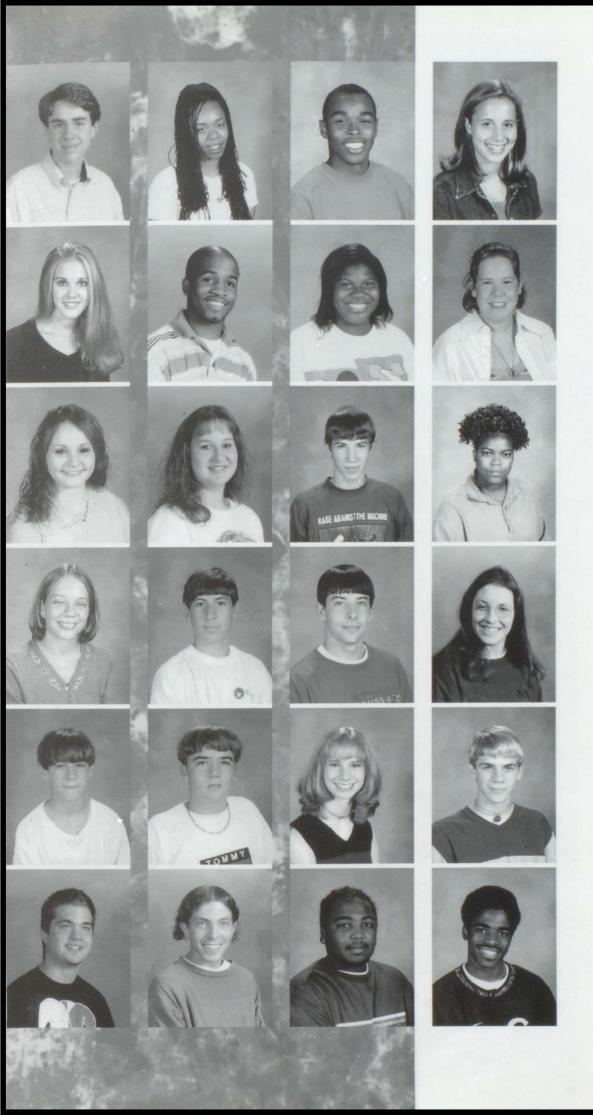

Taylor Lightfoot Tomika Lilly Glen Mckenzie Katie McMinn Jordan McNeely David Martin April Marshall Kristie Metclaf Ruth Ann Miller Crystal Mills Jonathan Moeck Yeshika Moore Laura Nannini Waylon Nelson Patrick Nix Tiffany Noble Robert Nolen Noah Parr Lacey Peeples Daniel Peavy David Polk Jeffrey Prickett

Rico Ray

Gary Reed

Demetrice Sanders Rachael Simone Tammi Spruel Charlotte Speake

Tami Spruel Terrontie Sullens Marie Sullivan Olivia Thompson

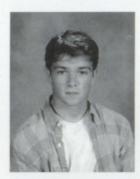

Andrew Tingle Warren Tolbert Maurice Valentine Jane Walker

Kyle Walker D'Andrea Ward Ashley White Brittney Williams

Jason Woodruff

"Can I borrow 75 cents?" is a phrase that everyone gets sick of hearing. The Junior class was definitely guilty of that.

As Colby Heath, Jeremy Evens, & Warren Tolbert give the camera an evil look, they show off thier true 70's style.

The Junior attendents, Lacy Horsley & Tomika Lilly, reveal their class pride as they ride in style during the Homecoming parade.

These enthusiastic students listen carefully in class. Staying awake was one of the Juniors best assets.

Adam Beardon and Glen McKenzie always look forward to leaving after school. Going home was everyones favorite activity.

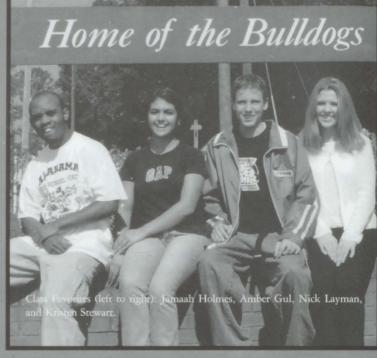

Sizzlin' Sophomores

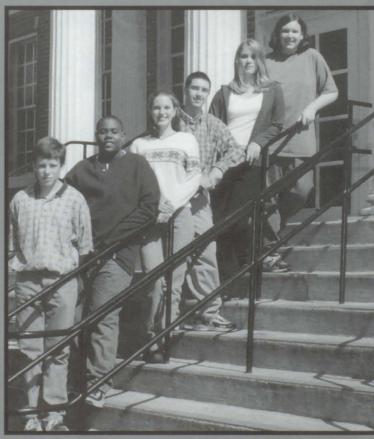

nlike Freshmen who were intimidated by their first year of high school, and Seniors who were frightened by the thought of the real world, Sophomores sizzled as they reached the half way point of the best years of their lives. With new experiences behind them and fond memories for the future, the sophomores overcame some of their worst fears. "My biggest fear was wondering how much harder than last year the work would be. I was relieved to find that it was not really that hard at all." said Krissy Hockaday. Some feared the new teachers, while some feared the size of the textbooks, and others said that more than fearing anything, they were just glad not to be Freshmen. Overall this was an exciting year for all to remember.

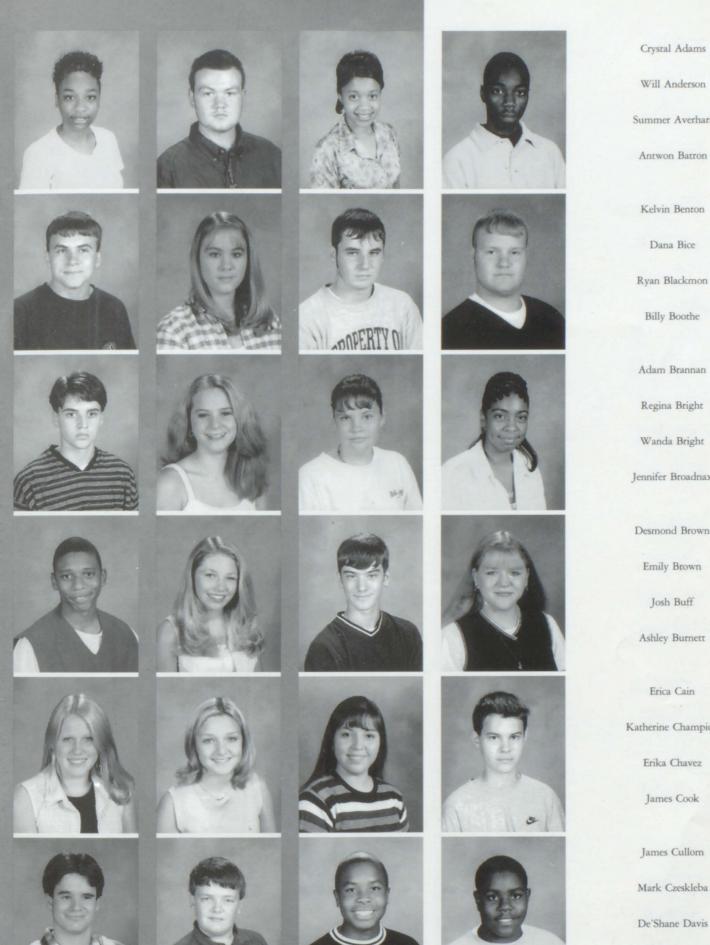

Class Officers (1 to r): Class Representatives Chris Nix, Vice President Chancelor DuBose, Secretary Angela Lefurgey, President Joel Horton, Treasurer Dana Bice, and Class Representative Samantha Nesmith.

Rebecca Wyatt prepares to perform at the half-time show. The Troubadours always provided exciting entertainment.

Crystal Adams Will Anderson Summer Averhart Antwon Batron Kelvin Benton Dana Bice Ryan Blackmon Billy Boothe Adam Brannan Regina Bright Wanda Bright Jennifer Broadnax Desmond Brown Emily Brown Josh Buff Ashley Burnett Erica Cain Katherine Champion Erika Chavez James Cook James Cullom Mark Czeskleba

Chansler DuBose

Chris Garza

Brent Glover

Alicia Golden

Michelle Goolsby

Tim Graham

Angela Greene

Pam Gross

Amber Gul

Josh Hardin

Adam Harper

Bethany Harrell

Brent Hasenbein

Emily Haslett

Joey Hensley

Julia Hill

Krissy Hockaday

Jamaah Holmes

Joel Horton

Dawn Hunt

Melissa Jarvis

Jada Jeffrey

Stephanie Jones

Lisa Kish

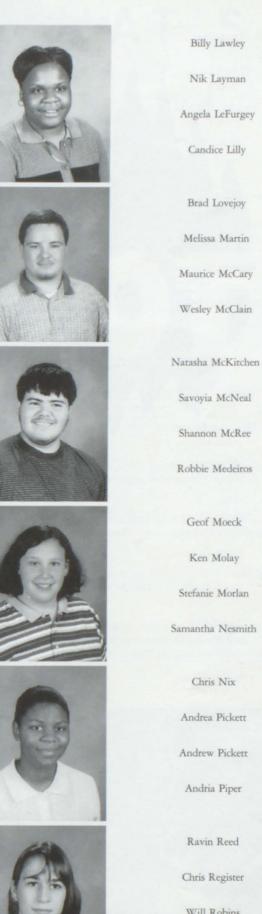

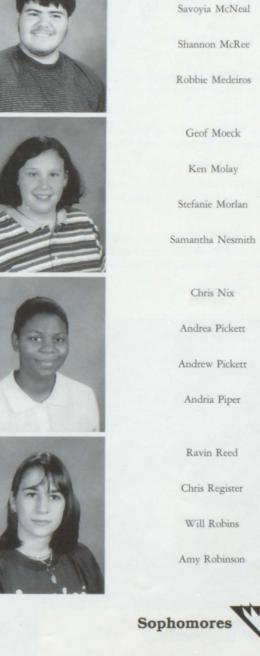

Amy Ross

Gabe Rutledge

Jonathan Rutledge

Michael Salter

Chris Shepherd

Josh Shoemaker

Matthew Simmons

Nathan Smitherman

Travis Speigner

Kristen Stewart

Mary Ann Stewart

Josh Stone

Terrion Talley
Steven Taylor
Joseph Tingle
Josh Tucker

Patricia White

Johnny Whitehead

Katrina Whitley

Amanda Wilder

Patrick Williams

Rebecca Wyatt

Benita Young

Laventa Young

WHAT'S

The Sophomores raged with school spirit as they march down to the stadium for the Homecoming pep rally. Although their efforts were great, they placed 10 points behind the freshmen for 3rd overall.

Andrew Pickett drops back for a pass, while Brad Lovejoy holds off the attack. B. B. Comer went up in smoke as the Bulldogs rallied on to defeat the Tigers in the delight of the home crowd.

Amber Gul and Chris Register look on to see their Sophomore class compete in Character Day. The Sophomore class placed third in the competetion.

Benita Young proves that 10th grade English needs a little explaining sometimes, as she helps out fellow classmates Krissy Hockaday and Amanda Wilder. Throughout the year, students touched up on their grammatical skills and read stories that sparked their interests.

Flamin' Freshmen

Stepping out of the smoke of the middle school, the freshmen are over whelmed with the flames of the high school and all the responsibility that came with it. Part of their responsibility included CORE projects and homecoming. The class of 2002 started off a great year by coming in 2nd place for homecoming.

The CORE projects showed the students how to be able to deal with projects they may have to do later on in life. "They were hard but they did help me out in other projects that I had to do," said Jeremy Noble.

ble.

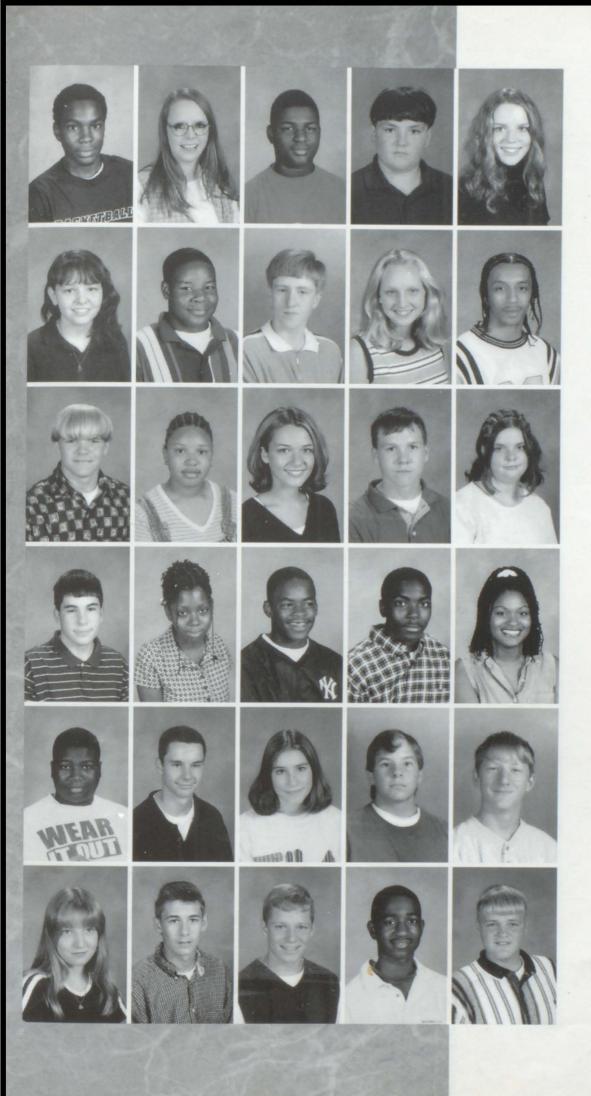

For the first time in their high school life these "Flamin' Freshmen" got to experience the taste of Homecoming spirit.

Class Officers (left to right): John Dickson, John Paul Foster, Molly Walker, Valerie Metcalf, Rene Morris, Sarah McMinn

Class Favorites (left to right): Christin Buttel, Rhea Broadhead, Lawerence Lilly, Nicki Jones

Demetrius Aace Amy Allen Allen Burnell Jeffery Ammons Lindsey Barnes

Jodi Beech Colorado Bivins Joe Blair Julynn Bradshaw Lucas Briggs

Rhea Broadhead Latreece Brown Christian Buttel Shane Carlee Angela Callender

Harper Carson Vallan Carta Emmett Chappell Leon Chappell Sheena Chappell

Chris Connell
Michael Cullom
Dana Crim
Jared Dailey
Brandon Davenport

Adria Davis David Devall John Dickson Bryant Duff Shane Dunaway Matthew Durham Waythan Easterling Jessica Elm Mary English Arkesia Farrington

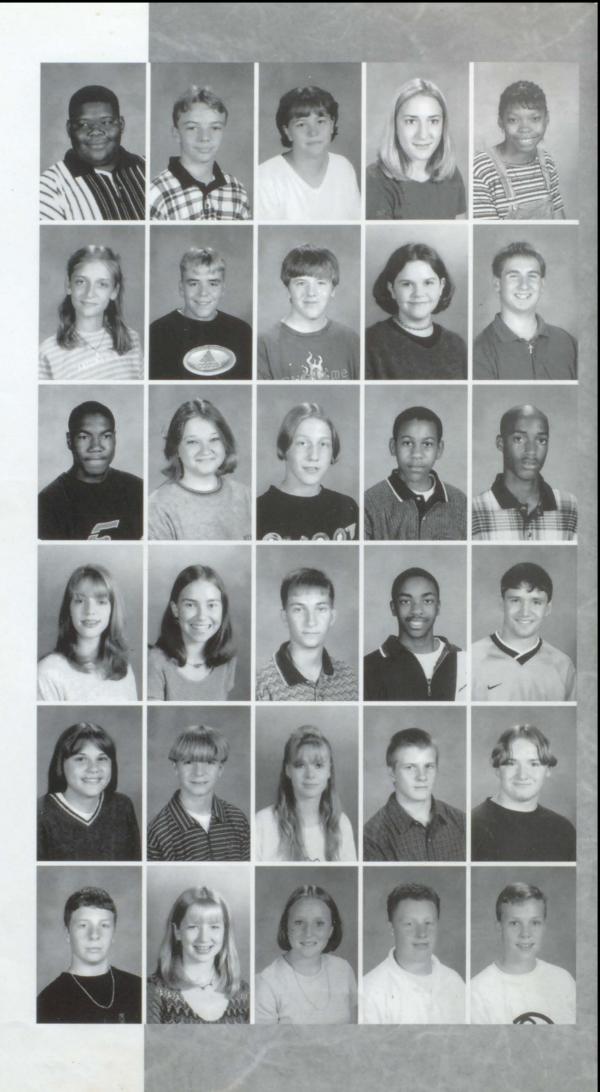

Rachel Ford Brandon Foster John Paul Foster Jennifer Franklin Daniel Garlinger

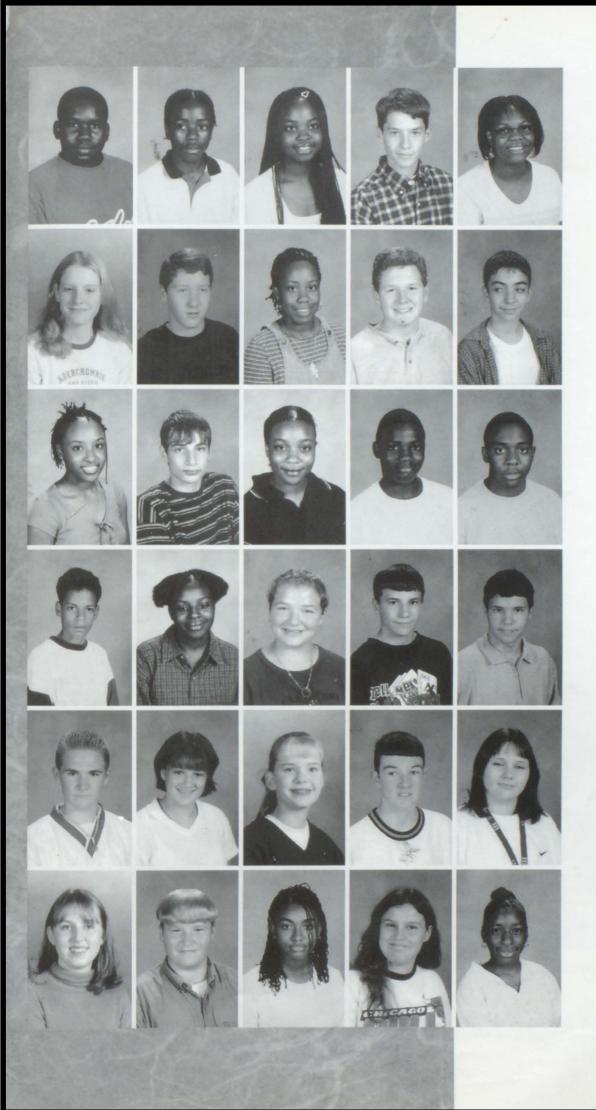

Stephen Gentry
Betsy Gibbs
Josh Gibbs
Jay Gilbert
Ronnie Gilbert

Sarah Ginwright Anna Godwin Jared Goggins Donnie Grant George Hall

Marilyn Hartman
Drew Heath
Katrina Hill
Justin Hill
Chris Holcombe

Robert Holsomback Nicki Huggins Jessica Honeycutt Sean Hoots Matthew Hope

Adrian Hudson Anthony Hudson Milli Huff Bruce Hyer April Inabinett

Kendall Ingram Wesley Ingram LaKisha Jefferson Daniel Johns Anthony Jones

Ryan Jones Sal Juarez Shan Keebler Cecil Kirkland Lawrence Lilly

Martell Lilly Melissa Lopp Jessica Lucas Charles Lutz J.R. Lutz

Caleb Masterson Amanda Matthews Brittany Mattox Jessie Mayhall Denise McConaghy

Brooke McGibbony John McGuire Monique McKenzie Jessica McKee Crystal McKitchen Sarah McMinn Valerie Metclaf Kira Minnick Sloan Monk Carl Moore

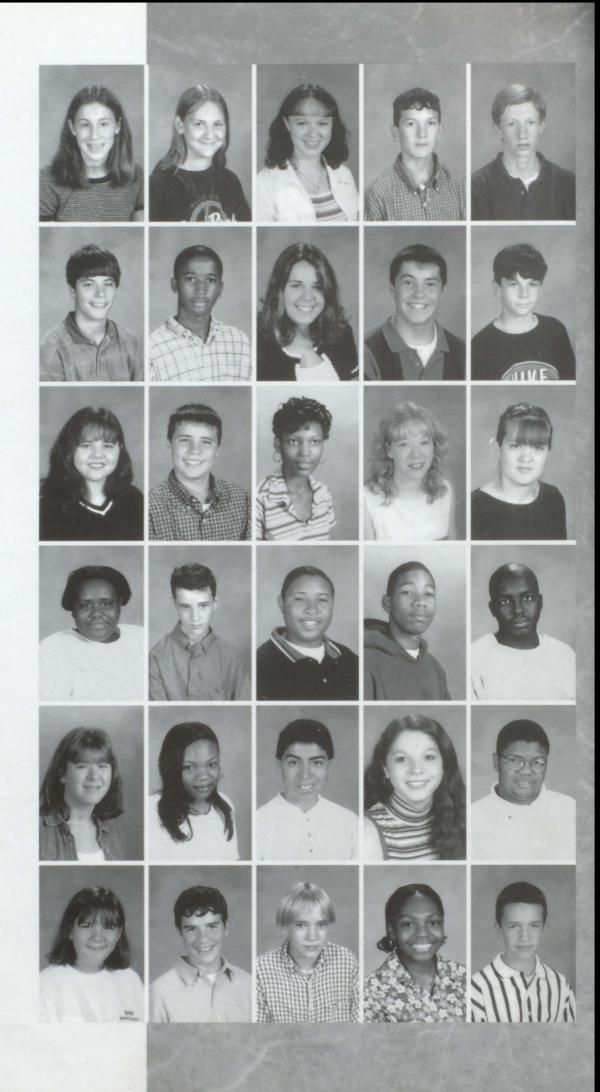

Daniel Moore David Morris Rene Morris Jeremy Noble Brian Nolen

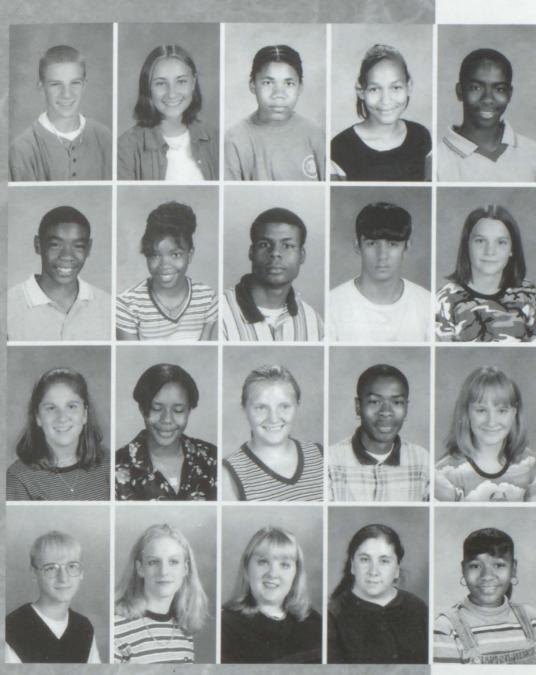

Brianne Pardue Rickey Pennington Sonya Peoples Lindsey Pickett Dana Polk

Starlita Postell Brian Powers James Prentice Tim Purnell Tione Ray

Jennifer Rogers Bridgett Rutledge Jeremy San Roman Stephanie Sanchez Eric Silas

> Kristen Simcik Daniel Simone Daniel Sims Cambria Smith Aaron Staab

Chris Stano
Jennifer Stephens
Curtish Taylor
Wendy Thomas
Quincy Thompson

Toney Thompson Tonya Thompson Antion Tolbert Robert Tucker Brittany Vestal

Molly Walker Jackie Ward Katie White Antonio Williams Gail Willis

Dale Willis Holli Wilson Leslie Wolfe Becky Woodall Ebony Young

The Freshmen wait to be judged for retro day. They worked as hard as they could to show their spirit for the Bulldogs.

Freshmen say, "Bulldogs are number 1!" The Freshmen get ready for a exciting pep rally. Since they cheered with lots of spirit they came in first place at the pep rally.

Fiery Faculty

ontevallo's staff has taken a slight change this year with the addition of five new teachers. New faculty members include Hilary Benson, Charles Boren, Jane Clayton, Robert Jenkins, and Jim King. Mr. Carter was often seen around helping the school. Paul Morris was elected as Teacher of the Year and Craig Bates received the WZZK trophy for earning Band of the Week. The addition of new faculty members and the recognitions of the already established staff, the faculty and staff were a fiery prospect.

Math teacher Paul Morris takes time to average student grades during his plan period. Morris also received the Teacher of the Year award.

Band director Craig Bates is accepting a trophy from WZZK. His leadership helped Montevallo earn Band of the Week.

Cathy Barber, English
Craig Bares, Band
Hilary Benson, Art
Tony Berry, Agribusiness
Wally Blanton, Science

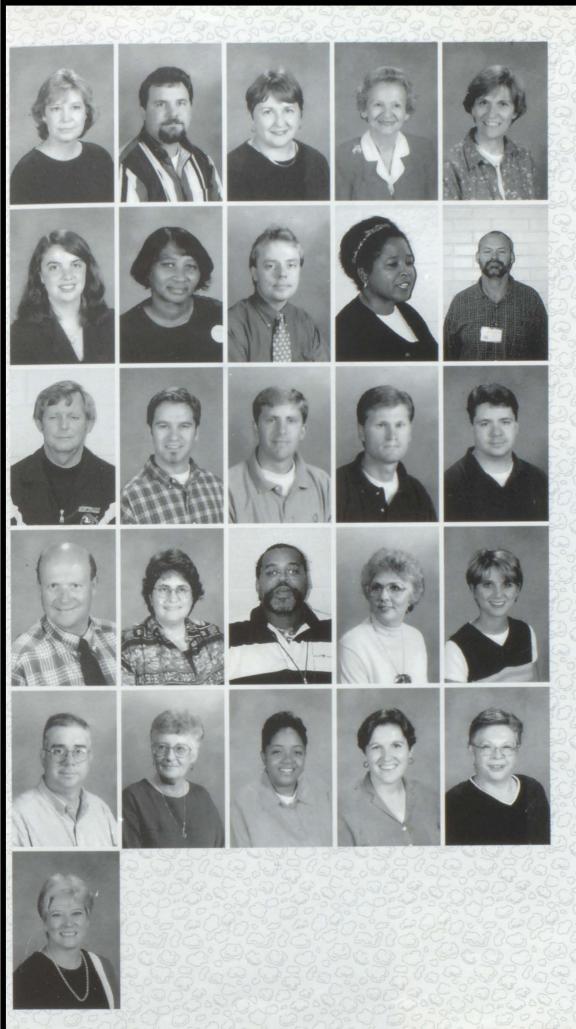

Charles Boren, Athletic Director Earlene Burke, Volunteer

Jane Clayton, English
Richard Colley, Science
Kathy Daum, Guidance Aide
Susie Dement, Admin. Specialist
Mary H. Derryberry, English

Melissa Doebler, Spanish Lula Farrington, Custodian Larry Haynes, History Barbara Henderson, History Tom Hester, History

Johnye Horton, Math Bill Hunt, Special Education Robert Jenkins, History Jim King, Science Paul Morris, Math

Tony Parente, English

Laura Parks, Special Ed.

Bobby Pierson, Physical Education

Faye Porter, Bookkeeper

Melanie Ray, Special Education

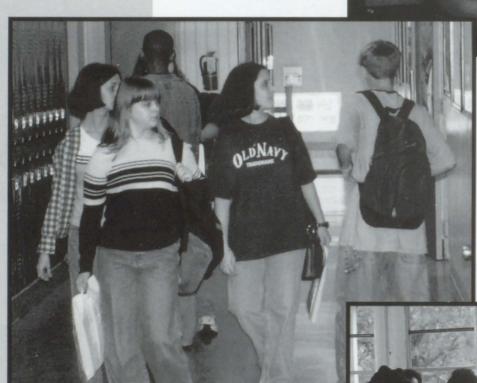

Kevin Raybon, Math Judy Shaw, Secretary Angela Triplett, Business Education Jan Walker, Counselor Nancy Werbach, Home Economics

Donna Dickson, Assistant Principal
Not Pictured
Stephanie Bolling, Physical Education
Kim Hammack, Librarian
George Theodore, Principal

Melting Point

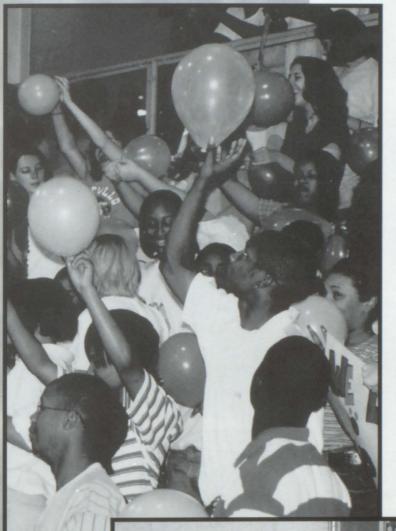

Mass Communications students check the football tapes even after a long, hard game. Many students put in extra time outside of school for their clubs or activities.

Rush! Rush! Rush! Rushing was one of the biggest hassles students had to deal with between classes.

Lunch proves to be a great social event for these girls. Many juicy conversations were discussed at lunch this year.

asting impressions are the ones that carry you throughout your life. They are made up of all the good and bad times you have experienced. High school memories are an important part of those remembrances. Football games, Prom, Homecoming, teachers, clubs, and especially friends leave an impression on you that you will never forget. These are lasting impressions that make you who you are, mold your personality, and "melt" us all together.

Seniors pep it up at the pep rally! Homecoming week and pep rallies were an exciting bit of every student's life.

Some Seniors are active in many clubs during their last year at school. Jessica Ballentine, Jennifer Bowden, Kristie Lawley, and Perry Lawley were all members of National Honor Society.

the

C o u g a r

Homecoming

omecoming week was once again won by the Senior class. Hard work and dedication all played a role in winning the float, penny count, orange and blue day, and numerous pep rallies. Unfortunately the seniors did not win with a clean sweep. The Freshmen managed to win a few pep rallies with their bulldog spirit, the Sophomores won Retro day, and the Juniors won Sunglasses day as well as their Greek wall. With all the class spirit, the bulldogs went on to defeat the cougars that Friday night with a score of 47-15. Homecoming managed to bring all students together for at least one week of the year.

Latonya Coleman, David Martin, and Tiffany Goldsmith are stylin' in their retro clothes. The Juniors put in a great effort on all of the dress-up days.

Mrs. Derryberry's class has 100% sunglass participation. Although all classes were close, the Juniors went on to win this event.

Jordan McNeely paints a paw print on Tami Spruel's face. These girls were very excited to show spirit for their school.

Seniors Jermaine Mitchell and Keaton Santa Cruz entertained the school in their Tweedle-dee and Tweedle-dum costumes. Not only did Seniors win character dress-up day, but Jermaine and Keaton got first place for personal best.

What is your favorite thing about Homecoming?

"I love the competition between classes because everyone works together and shows a lot of school spirit."

Holly Dickson (Junior)

"I enjoy the dress-up days, because I can laugh at everybody."

> Jamaah Holmes (Sophomore)

"I like the fact that people aren't afraid to dress-up and make fools of themselves, so that their class can win."

Kristie Lawley (Senior)

"My favorite thing about
Homecoming is the little amount of work we get done during school.
I also liked getting second place
while being a Freshmen."

Brooke McGibboney (Freshmen)

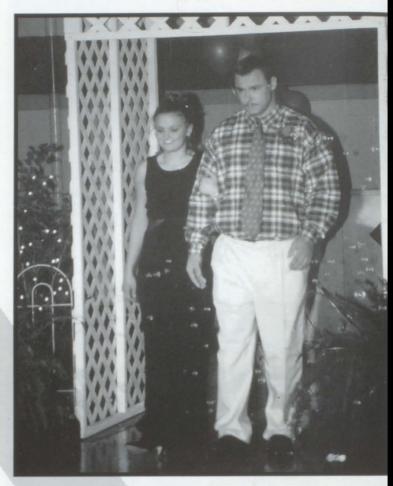

Steaming Up

ing week was packed with fun and excitement all week long. All the way from the dress up days, float competition, and the football game on Friday, the fun seemed to never end. As all good things must come to an end so must Homecoming week, but not without the annual Homecoming dance. After a week spent in fierce Competition during spirit week, the dance was a time to honor those students chosen for court such as: Freshmen Molly Walker and Millicent Huff, Sophomores Stephanie Jones and Angela Lafurgey, Juniors Tomika Lilly and Lacy Horsley, and Seniors Emily Nathews, Keisha Harrell, and Queen Andrea Lilly. The theme of this years dance was "I Don't Want to Miss a Thing" by Aerosmith. This years dance was a major success and fun was had by all that attended.

Senior Brandon Graham and Junior Ashley White participate in the homecoming lead-out. They had a wonderful time at this years Homecoming dance.

Court attendants (left to right): Angela Lefurgey, Lacy Horsley, Tomika Lilly, Keisha Harrell, Andrea Lilly (Queen), Emily Nathews, Stephanie Jones, Molly Walker, and Millicent Huff

the Dance Floor

Brain Ford and Jodi Beech share a special moment at the dance. This was a dance that neither of them will soon forget.

Senior Court Attendents (left to right): Kiesha Harrell, Andrea Lilly (Queen), and Emily Nathews

Foreign exchange student Stephanie Bock from Germany enjoys her first Homecoming Dance in the United States. This was a very memorial dance for Stephanie and her date Nik Layman.

Escaping

even hours a day, five days a week, AHHH!!! The weekend was finally here. So many things, so little time. During the weekend so many things can happen. Most students spend their weekend with their friends or significant others. Other activities include talking on the phone, working, partying, or just shopping with their friends. It seemed like two days was never enough. ★But whether it was a whole weekend or just the few minutes between classes, we had to have our fun. When the bell rings on Friday, the desks empty, the halls fill, and everybody is heading out the door to start their weekend that is well deserved. ★The number one priority was to have fun being with your friends. Everybody waited so long for the weekend or the four minutes between classes that before they even realized it, the weekend was here again!

Eric Jones takes a dive into the water at Locust Fork. Eric is one of the few who loves Suprise! Spending time with your friends is what it is all about! Some students throw suprise birthday parties for their friends.

Football games are always an exciting event in the fall. Whether a student may yell, War Eagle or Roll Tide, the students still enjoyed the game this year at Legion Field with an Alabama victory of 31 to 17

What we do

"Sleep, play golf, and think of graduation.' Perry Lawley, Senior

Student Life

"I practice with my band "Sit at home and watch and write." Demian Price, television." Tierra Cathey,

"Party!" Warren Tolbert, Junior

the Flames

Eric Jones paddles furriously, trying to keep from going under! Kayaking is one of his most exciting things to do on

Work, work, and more work! Senior Thad Walker helps a customer at his part-time job at Lucky's. Many students work part-time on the weekends to earn a little extra mone on the weekends

Hang out with my friends at the movies and "Go Hunting." Brent the mall." Lisa Kish, Sophomores

Hasenbein, Sophomores

'Hang out with my friends!" Amanda Mathews, Freshman

Go to football and basketball games." Antone Williams,

Freshme Student Life

What's Hot?

Trendy — Of or being in accord with the latest fashion

— Webster's II Dictionary

No one likes to admit it, but everyone falls into some type of trend. The halls are stormed with new trends everyday: the music you listen to, the places you go, and especially the clothes you wear. From shoes to shirts and jewelry to paint everyone has their idea of "Whats Hot." The students on these pages are showing off their link to Montevallo trends.

Belts are not just for holding up your pants anymore. Students show off their own style with leather, cotton, and metals.

Students show off plaid power. A crazy pattern of colors makes for a good anytime over shirt or buttoned up.

What Do You Think is Trendy?

" Wide leg jeans and little shirts "

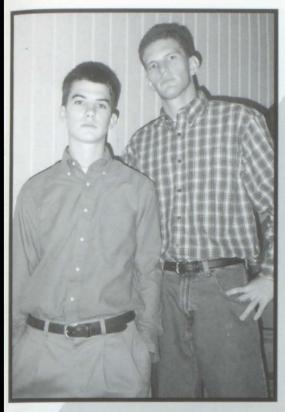

— Charita Forman

"Tank tops and low riding jeans."

— Natalia Jones

Big pants are all the rage. These students show their ground-scrubbers with pride.

Perry Lawley and Colby Heath are dressed for success. This business-like attire is seen on a lot of people.

Everyone has a pair of army-style trousers. Cargo and fatigue pants had many marching with style.

Burning Rubber

A big part of h i g h school life is getting a driver's licence. At sixteen, kids need to have a car and be able to drive it to school. Drivers rev their car's engines every morning that the school doors open. As students near the school, they turn up the volume and make sure everyone knows that they have arrived. Parking is always fun! If you arrive early, you are assured a good parking space, otherwise, good luck finding one, you might end up hiking a ways or squeezing in where there is no real space. Students "Burn Rubber" all the way down Oak Street in order to get their beloved parking space.

Students rush to get in school before the tardy bell rings. The parking was limited because of the construction at school.

While the buses take off, Lauren Hendon jumps into her car in order to get home quickly. She, along with others, carried people home so that they would not have to ride a bus.

Brittney Williams and Josh Lawley wait for others to move out of the way. By three o'clock everyone was making their way out of the parking lot.

While the buses take off, Amber Gul jumps into her car in order to get home quickly. She, along with others, carried people home so that they would not have to ride a bus.

Stacy Pickett gets ready to take off after a long day at school. Lots of people parked along Oak Street so that they would not be blocked in.

Coach Pierson, shows off one of the new cars issued by the County for Drivers' Education. With the help of him, many students were more prepared for Burning Rubber!

"I don't like to drive because once I drove across some railroad tracks without looking and almost got squished by a train!" — Laura Nannini

"I like to drive because you can do things on your own and you don't have to find rides to places. Driving is fun and brings more freedom, but it also brings a lot more responsibility." — Andrew Pickett

"I like driving because you don't have to wait for people to take you anywhere; you can just go. I hate the parking... because the first day I drove (to school) I had to park a country mile away." — Brent Hasenbein

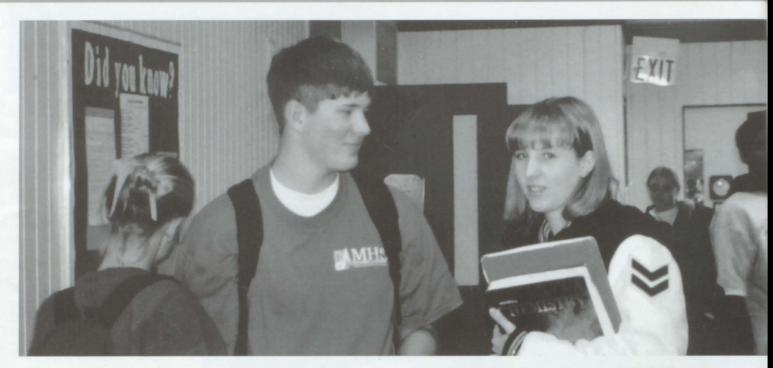

"I am enjoying my new truck; although, I have to work hard to keep up payments." — Eric Jones

Feeling

Gazing at each other before class, Laura Nannini and Jason Carlee get a little closer. Save it for the weeker

Hannah Fletcher catches a glance at the camera while talking to her boyfriend Adam Harper. Many people the halls to snuggle; as Mr. Theodore says," Love will make you late!"

Perry Lawley and Mary Ann Stewart sneak a talk in the band room before school starts. Many students us time before school to get a little more personal.

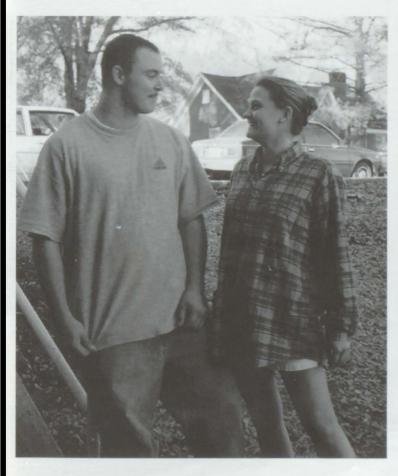

Fireworks O'

They wander down the hall hand in hand, constantly stealing gazes at each other. They snuggle at lockers or in corners before every period. Everyone has seen them - the couples. Whether you have been one of those people, wish you were one, or hate them-everyone has noticed them. Some couples claim they are in love, while others just admit to being infactuated. Whether in love or not, everyone admits to having a great time with their significant other." I first knew I was in love when Robert was gone for a couple days and it seemed like years." said senior Jessica Ballentine. Senior Robert Gouge responded," Jessica has been there through the good and the bad. I couldn't imagine getting through last year without her." While couples like these cannot help but make you feel all gushy, many students say single is the way. Senior Lauren Hendon comments," High school is a time to date around and have fun. I don't want to worry about being tied down."

Ashley White laughs at something her boyfriend Brandon Graham says. Often couples are seen laughing together.

Jessica Ballentine and Robert Gouge are so close they even dress up together! Everyone enjoyed looking at the cute couple on Retro day he students were heated up this year as they went head to head in competition. Per rallies were always a blast as students cheered their hearts out. Competitive spirits ran high as students got deep into preparations for homecoming. All around, students showed their fiery school spirit in everything they did.

The Roar of

Pep rallies were loud and colorful as students waved banners and cheered the bulldogs to victory. At the beginning of every pep rally the football players came marching out to the roat of the fight song. The cheerleaders would push the crowd to new heights as they chanted cheer after cheer. The band would set the crowds to dancing as they played lively tunes. At each per rally a new, wild competition would be introduced to find the students many hidden talents.

Homecoming week was an explosion of color, costumes, and decorations as students built floats, designed walls, and dressed up for various days. On backwards day almost the whole school turned out at the front steps to show off their creativeness. On character day the seniors stunned the school with their army and the juniors sent shockwave with their Greek flair Wigs, tie-dye,love beads, and platform shoes were abundant as retro-day came around Everyone was seeing in blue and orange as people went all out with face and body-painting on the day of the big game. That night practically everyone in Montevallo attended the game.

All in all the roar of the crowd will always echo in our memories for years to come.

The Freshman celebrate their first pep rally victory this year. The Freshman went on to place second overall.

Katie McMinn shows off her toga on Character day. The Juniors had a Greek theme this year for Homecoming week.

the Crowd

Varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders show off their gymnastic skills as they perform at the Homecoming pep rally. They placed first in competition against other schools.

Sophomore Steven Taylor shows off his eye-catching costume at character day. Despite his marvelous efforts, the Sophomores came in third.

The Seniors go all out this year as they try everything to win Homecoming. Their efforts paid off as they place first.

Sizzlin' Sumer Fun

ummer is more than just a break from school it is a time to have fun. Even though many students labor much of their summer away in summer jobs, many students use this time away from the stress filled atmosphere of school to go on vacation. Vacations sent students to a wide variety of places. Many people went to the beach or the mountains, while several students spent a fun filled two weeks in Spain. While there these students experienced the Spanish culture and lifestyle first hand. On the other hand some summer jobs were like vacations in themselves. "My summer job was well worth it because it helped me to learn good work ethic and most importantly it gave me an opportunity to meet a lot of interesting people" said Senior Mc-Shan Walker. Although evervone loves summer time, it ends and we must all face the uncertainties of the new school year.

The majorettes practice their streamer routine for their field show in the hot summer heat. They also attended camp in Huntsville where they learned their field show and pep rally routine.

During band camp Juniors Brandy Daily and Lacy Horsley enjoy a good old fashioned wheel barrow race. The band members enjoyed many games like this during the week.

The Varsity cheerleaders enjoy a refreshing popsicle after a week of hard work at Cheerleading camp. They learned many new dances and cheers which they used throughout the year.

Ms. Doebler takes another exciting group across the ocean to Spain. She plans to take another group to Italy this summer.

Juniors Amber Lackey and Hannah Fletcher are all smiles while they meet the band Eve 6. This was the highlight of their summer.

Smokey Halls

ts time to rock and roll! Be there or be square! You are not going to learn anything in the halls! These are commonly heard phrases throughout the day in the halls from Mr. Theodore. He keeps us on our toes to get to class on time and learn! The halls are where the students have their fun. Some students talk to their boyfriend or girlfriend while the single students aggravate their friends or just plainly act like a fool between classes. A lot of students do not get to class on time. Many students take their time getting to class regardless of the consquences. There may be only four minutes but students will linger around and talk to friends and enjoy their few short minutes of fun. ▼ The snack and drink machines are always a big hit too! Students grab a snack here and a drink there and some even "borrow" money from thier friends to satisfy their cravings. ▼ Whether its talking to their significant other, their friends, clowning around or munching, students enjoy their few short minutes between classes! But when the bell rings, the halls clear of the smoke and everything goes back to normal, at least until another hour!

McShan Walker, DJ Williams, and Jordan McNeely take advantage of their few minutes between classes. Many students were found talking and laughing between classes.

William McNeal grabs a quick drink of water before heading on to class. Amber Gul stops by to chat to her friend while he drinks.

Latonya Conwell, Deandrea Ward, and Lamont Williams discuss their weekend plans by Mr. Blanton's door. The students stand by his door because they know you will get locked out if you are not on time.

Juniors Katie Hall and Cory Horton clown around in the halls. These two are well known for stirring up some smoke in the halls.

Amber Wade grabs hold of Regina Bright and smiles at the camera. Clowning around in the halls is a familiar sight.

One To Glow On!

Yearbook staff member Jennifer Bowden works consistently on her spread. She is a hard worker and will get done by the deadline.

Managha A Managh

The Percussionists warm up for the big pep ralley; they look really hot and exhausted. They always worked hard and managed to cheer up the most unresponsive crowd.

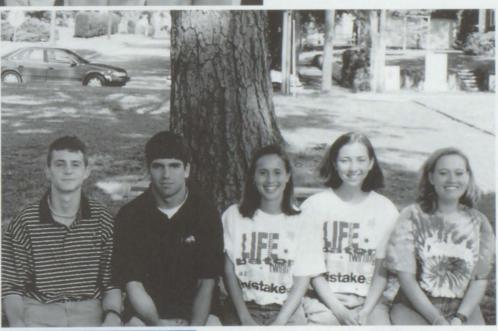

Mass Comm students do a lot to prepare for their big broadcasting moments while contemplating the student body minds. They work as a whole making great progress for future news broadcastors.

he light has finally begun to shine. These organizations have given great performances throughout the school year, the ornganizations has thrown off entertainment, accomplishments, and the best self determination one will ever see. The Band made it hot. Student Council lighted it up, Mass Comm made a heat sweep, Color Guard made it spark, and the Cheerleaders warmed it up. It has been a long year with unexpected things but the organizations in this school will always be rewarded for their good talents. They have made it to the top with their tough competition and zeal to give up no matter what comes there way.

Color Guard members prepare to march into the stadium. The color guard always lead the band to an outstanding performance.

Student Council officers smile for the camera anticipating their new leadership over the year. These 5 students looked as if they have a long road ahead of them and Homecoming is their main course.

Sparks On

The Field

he majorettes, twirling and shaking, showed their talent on the field as they entertained the crowd at halftime. It all may have looked easy to the spectators, but the girls pushed themselves to the limit to give their best. Training began at camp over the summer in Huntsville, AL. They learned new twirls, moves, and just what their audience liked. The girls raised money for eamp and their matching outfits by raffling off Beanie Babies. Camp taught us a lot about our field routine but we also got to know each other better. said Jane Walker.

Jane, Bethany, Katie, and Ashley practice their new dance at Majorette camp. They had a blast getting to know one another.

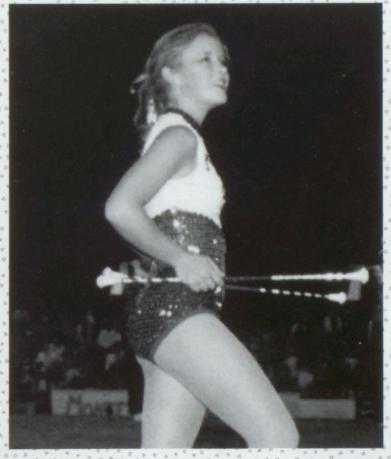

(left to right, back to front) Jane Walker, Angela Lefurgy, Bethany Harrell, Katie McMinn, Lacy Horsley, Ashley White

The majorettes, with Band Director, Craig Bates, glow as they show off their trophy for "Best of Class." It was a well deserved award.

Lacy Horsley concentrates to the beat of the music during her performance. She was excited about pleasing the crowd.

Bethany Harrell raises her cape high as she marches on the field. The beautiful capes added a flare to the halftime show.

Lighting up the Field

THIS is the

Resun Jones blazes across the field at the Friday night performance. The Color Guard has become a big part of the half time show.

The Color Guard show of their skills by entertaining the Elementary school kids at the homecoming pep rally.

Drum Major Lauren Ryerson plays the bells in addition to leading the band at Friday night performances.

Color Guard members (L to R): Emily Kemp, April Marshall, Kristine Metclaf, Monique Jones, Tiffany Goldsmith, and Resun Jones.

ots of hard work, hours of practice, and a little dedication is involved in preparation for the Color Guard's Friday night performances. After only two years, the Color Guard has become a part of Montevallo's long running band tradition. Members Emily Kemp (captain), Tiffany Chappell, Monique Jones, Krissy Metclaf, April Marshall, and Reshun Jones spent many weeks during the summer practicing. Often the color guard stayed after regular practice to get in more work. Drum Major Lauren Ryerson also went to camp to practice conducting and control.

Monique Jones and the rest of the Color Guard fire up the crowd at the Friday afternoon pep rally.

Marching Into

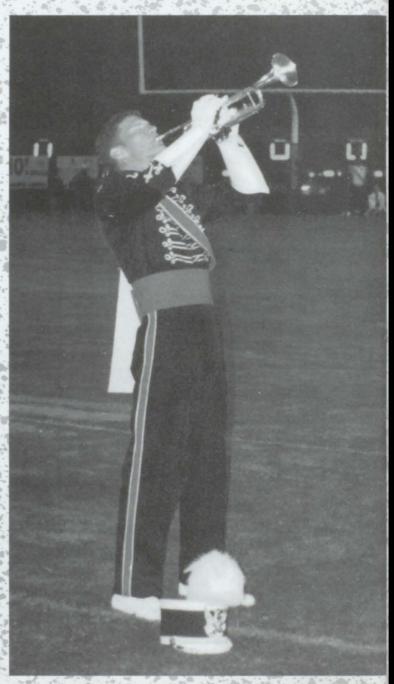

great routine and choice of music were the marching band's key to success this year. Everyone loved to hear it at the football games and pep rallies. It really fired the crowds up.

The choice of routines and music can be contributed to the excellence of band director Craig Bates. Under the direction of drum major Lauren Ryerson, the Troubadours were very successful at competitions, as well as the majorettes who ranked first in their division.

The seniors finished the season with a bang and have left an everlasting impression on their fellow band members. The freshmen, on the other hand, experienced their first year marching at the high school level, but with the guidance of seniors such as Perry Lawley and Chris Puckett their spirits warmed up to the idea of something new. With the combination of experience and new talents, the Troubadours marched into the flames and then on to greatness.

Perry Lawley gives a firery performance as he plays his solo from the song "You've Lost That Loving Feeling" during halftime at a football game. Every one of the seniors gave it their all this year and fired the crowds up at their various performances.

Sophomore Michael Anderson and Andrew DeWeese stand with flames in their eyes ready to play at halftime. The band loved to play for their loyal fans who followed them around until the end.

The Flames

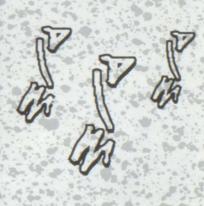

Drum Major Lauren Ryerson directs her band with a lot of heart. The band had much success this year because of the great relationships that were developed between the band and their directors.

While the rest of us were on summer vacation, the band had to come to school to get ready for the year's new routine. All their efforts proved to be a great success as their audiences exploded with gratitude after their performances.

The saxophones play their part loud and strong! The band went from no saxes last year to four this year.

Flutes Mary Ann Stewart, Brandy Dailey, and Jessica-Honeycutt perform Flight of the Pegasus. The flutes consistently played well.

Maurice Valentine and Andrea Lilly figure out their part on the bells. Percussion makes a huge difference to the way the band sounds.

The band patiently sits and waits while the french horns practice their part. Many times help is needed for individual sections so they can learn their part.

Sizzling Sounds

he troubadours were extremely busy during the 1998-99 year. With Craig Bates in his second year as band director at Montevallo, the band really began to buckle down. They had section rehersals for Christmas and spring concerts, as well as getting ready for district competition. The symphonic band even got to march in a parade for the chamber of commerce. The band constantly volunteered to play at various organizations. Mr. Bates also started a jazz band.

This was made up of students who volunteered extra time each week to stay after school and practice. They were also asked to play at various different places. With all the awards this band recieved, it is obvious that the troubadours had a very successful year.

Mr. Bates claps to keep the trombones up to tempo. It was Mr. Bates second successful year at MHS.

Laura Nannini leads the rest of the trombones in practice for district. Section leaders were important when helping and keeping their section in line.

Symphonic Band

Burning Up

he Moonlight Players once again displayed their amazing talent as they lit up the stage performing "Mixed Nuts." They overcame many changes such as gaining a new director, Mrs. Jane Clayton, as well as a new theatre. The Players began rehearsals in their classroom the third week of school. Then they rehearsed at the theatre in Palmer Hall to compensate for the loss of their own. "It was hard not being able to practice with furniture and props, but when the time came we were ready." said Keith Czeskleba. The new theatre was completed in February and the first performance took place soon after. "This year the Play ers have worked really hard. I will mis them after I graduate." said senior Aman da Wyatt. Another Player, sophomore Na than Smitherman, stated that to be an ac tor, you must be "disciplined and have a lot of patience. This was my first year and can not wait until next year."

Keith practices carrying Amanda offstage for their "Gone With the Windscene in "Mixed Nuts." The play was a sensation.

Christy practices her 'Abu-gamma' backstage at Palmer. Her fligh character caused many laughs.

The Stage

TAKE 27

Your Moonlight Players are (left to right, front to back) Nathan Smitherman, Christy Moore, Charlotte Speake, Amanda Wyatt, Keith Czeskleba, Jennifer Bowden, and Jeremy Evans.

Jeanny points the way to success. He enjoyed his fast year in the theater.

Jennifer, Charlotte, Amanda, and Christy chow down after a hard day of rehearsal. Their reward was well deserved.

In his satisfaction of a great reheatsal, Keith shows his excitement. His last high school performance was one he will never forget.

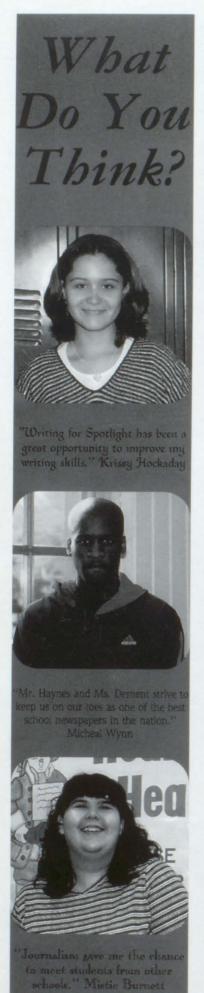

Jeremy and Nathan discuss the variety of the characters while Keith wonders, "Why me?" The guys were a great success.

Amanda practices "kvetching," her characters favorite hobby. She fit the part well.

Theatre Arts 69

Keith Czeskleba, Courtney Brasher, and Patrick Nix listen to last minute advice from their editors. All of the staff listened to what the others had to say.

The Jourlism class works hard on different activities. They all strived to put out their best effert for the articles.

This logo sits behind the anchors as they present the news. The logo was designed in 1995 by Emily Sullivan, Chris Folmer, Brooklyn White, and the Mass Communications class.

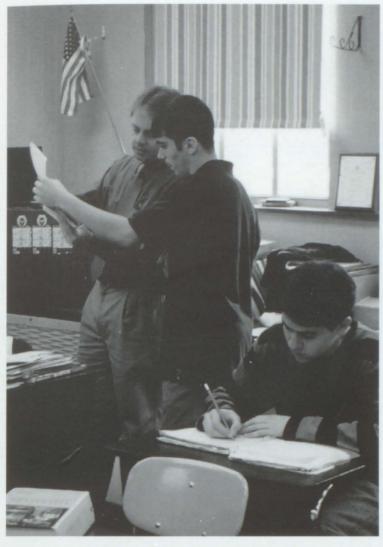

Katie Hall thinks hard about her article as Thad Walker reads over another. From all the hard work the articles turned out excellent.

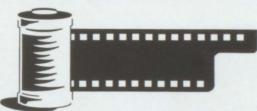

Warren Tolbert and Kelly Thompson are busy at work writing their articles. Both of these articles were in the newspaper and were a big hit.

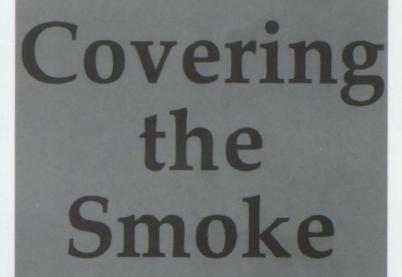

he Mass Communications and Journalism staff worked hard to keep the school up to date on the latest news. Mr. Larry Haynes guided both of these staffs with the knowledge he learned from his past experiences of being a Mass Communications and Journalism teacher. Ms. Susie Dement also helped with the distribution of the Spotlight.

The Mass Communications staffers worked hard to prove they had what it took to air MHS TV News. They aired a show every two weeks to keep the students and teachers up to date with the news.

The Journalism staff also kept the people informed by publishing the Spotlight. The Spotlight is produced about other every week. It includes topics from Teacher of the Year to Editorials.

With the help of these courageous and hardworking staffers, it was easy to Cover the Smoke.

As Mr. Haynes and Amir Ebrahimi look over a article, Taylor Lightfoot is hard at work with other important information. The whole staff worked hard on the Spotlight.

Keith Czeskleba, Chris McRee, Keisha Harrell, Courtney Brasher, and Dora Thompson all gather around the monitor to watch the broadcast. The broadcast went through with only a few minor difficulties.

Roaring Council

Itudent Council is responsible for many of the wonderful projects that went on during the school year. Members of this establishment helped with assignments such as: Homecoming preparation (The dance, daily activities, and the parade), school wide blood drive, can food drives, and the school holiday decore. The homecoming dance, and the fun filled dress up days would not be the same without decisions made by the "Roaring Council". Last year the blood drive brought in 65 pints of blood and this year the can food drive was a major success. The council is made up of several students from each grade who are voted on by their fellow students. Without these leading students the schools spirit and drive would be nonexis-

STUDENT COUNCIL

Joel Horton and Ms. Triplett hang a beautiful wreath to celebrate the Christmas spirit. Student Council often helped out the decoration crisis in the halls.

Problem Extinguishers

are like the lifeline of the school. They made lots of things possible and made many people happy. During the Christmas season groups of these caring students took in a family in need. They provided the children with gifts they might not have gotten anything otherwise. These Problem Extinguishers' are also very drug conscious. They make our school able to participate in Red Ribbon Week. This includes drug and alcohol awareness, and how to deal with peer pressure. All in all, the Peer Helpers try to make our school a better environment. A DO A A DO A

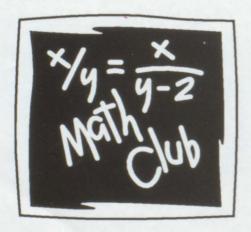

NHS (1 to r): Tracy Ennis, Jermaine Mitchell, Perry Lawley, Michael Wynn, Keith Czescleba, Donny Sisco, Keisha Harrell, Andrea Hall, Kristie Barnett. Second row: Mary Laurel Blake, Jessica Ballentine, Amanda Wyatt, Christy Moore, Joe Adams, Kristie Lawley, Jenny Moore, Stacy Pickett. Front row: Lauren Ryerson, Emily Nathews, Thad Walker, McShan Walker, Erin Dover, Dora Thompson, Lauren Hendon, and Rene Ross.

Math Team (I to r): Samantha Nesmith, Taylor Lightfoot, Steven Blackmon, Brian Ford, Tim Graham. Front row: Tiffany Goldsmith, Laura Nannini, Tiffany Hamburg, Donny Sisco, Joel Horton, and Tiffany Noble.

Erin Dover helps Scholarship Chairman Lauren Hendon color the bulletin board for A honor roll. Lauren helped make these backboards every six weeks.

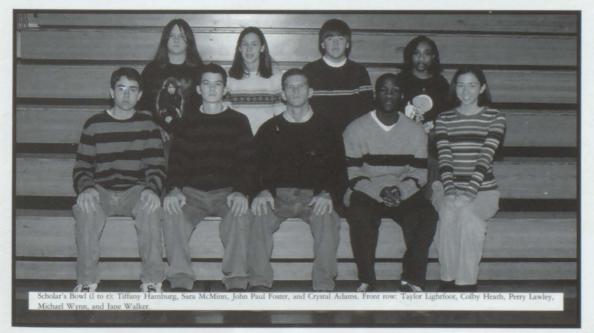

Fierry Mix

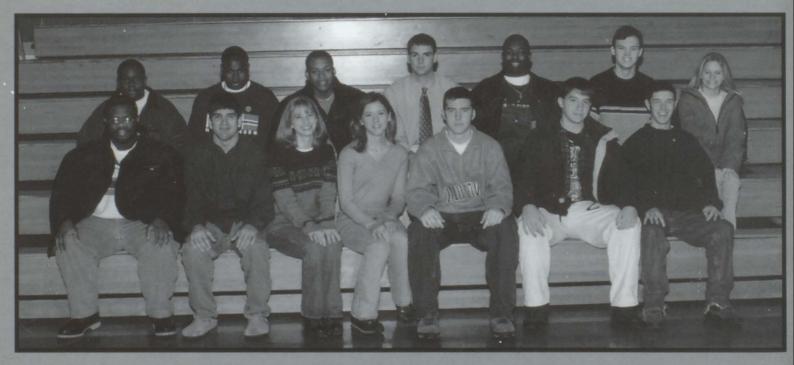

Key Club: (I to r) Back row: Michael Wynn, Hillary Franklin, Jenny Moore, Stacy Pickett. Second row: JoelHorton, Nathan Smitherman, Kristie Lawley, Lauren Hendon. Front row: Cory Horton, Christy Moore, and Erin Dover.

cademics played an important role this year in student's lives. Like always, grades and schoolwork came first to much of the school's population. For the National Honor Society students, grades had to be kept up to a 85 GPA average since ninth grade. This was one of the largest groups ever proving that the students studied hard. The Math team and Scholar's Bowl also worked hard on their school specialities. While the students who excelled in Math were lead by Mr. Morris, Mrs. Barber kept the Scholar's Bowl members in line. Both teams did well at their competitions. While the three groups were academically inclined, Key Club helped out with more leadership roles in the community. Many times the Key club members traveled to the Elementary school to read to the kids as well as other duties. Overall, these organizations helped heat up the school's academic regime.

Fire

he Fellowship of Christian Athletes has been very busy this school year with various activities. During the summer they attended camp in North Carolina. They also attend weekly meetings and host a breakfast for the coach's. Along with their many meetings and fellowship, they also were always there to help a family in need. "FCA was a great place to go to worship and make many new friends." says Junior Lacey Peeples.

FCA, Back row: Chansler Dubose, Jermaine Mitchell, DJ Williams, Keaton Santa Cruz, PJ Gilmore, Robert Hope, Courtney Brasher. Front row: Dewayne Sailes, Thad Walker, Lacey Peeples, Lacy Horsley, Corey Horton, Josh Hardin, Joel Horton.

Fighters

irst Priority was very successful in the maintaining of their yearly activities. Among several other things, First Priority held their annual See You at the Pole rally. They also held several bible studies throughout hte year. Sponsored by Wally Blanton, First Priority met weekly on Tuesday mornings in his classroom before school.

First Priority, Back row: Brent Hasenbein, Hilary Franklin, Jenny Moore, Shannon McRee, Nicki Huggins, Lindsey Barnes, Valorie Metclaf. Middle row: Dewayne Sailes, April Marshall, Kristie Lawley, Wendy Smith. Bottom row: Nic Layman, Corey Horton, Robert Horton, Courtney Brasher.

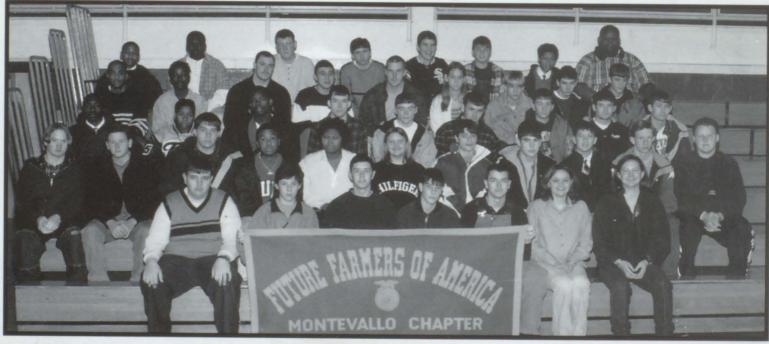

Spark

he Future Farmers of America and Future Homemakers of America both had a successful and productive year. FFA worked hard to sell fruit during the winter for the Annual Fruit sale, and also went to the Convention in Kansas. FHA, on the otherhand, was busy with their coat giveaway. Mr. Berry advised the FFA while Mrs. Werbach helped FHA. Students in both clubs learned skills that will help them in their future. Both clubs were very different from each other but both worked hard to accomplish their goals.

Andrew Tingle cuts wood while anticipating the outcome. He works hard and steady.

Back Row (I to r): Jay Gilbert, Adrian Hudson, Brian Stano, Jerred Kamerer, Daniel Simone, Rickey Pennington, Martel Lilly, Matt Durham, Center Row(I to r): Antonio Dubose, Anthony Hudson, Brandon Graham, Brody HoneyCurt, Adam Bearden, Valerie Metclaf, Daniel Sims, Michael Cullom, Josh Buff, Leon Chappell, Anitra Cutts, Emmet Chappell, Michael McGraw, Steven Absher, Josh Stone, Jerred Goggins, George Hall, David Devall, Daniel Johns, Josh Hardin, Deshane Davis, Kiera Rutledge, Katie White, Daniel Moore, Harper Carson, Sloan Monk, Carl Moore. Sean Hoots, Front Row(I to r): Brent Hasbien, Chris Nicks, Joel Horton, James Lee, Donnie Sisco, Ashley White, and Mary Blake.

It Up!

Back Row(I to r): Brittany Vestal, Leslie Wolfe, April Inabinett, Ebony Young, Angela Calender, Gail Willis, Lindsey Pickett, and Charles Lutz. Front Row(I to r) Amanda Matthews, Jessica Mckee, Wendy Thomas, Dana Polk, Wanda Bright, Brittany Mattox, Jessica Lucas.

Joshua Hardin cuts down into his board to get the exact measurment for his board. He looks like an expiring constructor in the making.

Chansler Dubose puts on his glasses and aprons to sharpen up for this diifcult task. He is ready to go on with his assignment of designing a board.

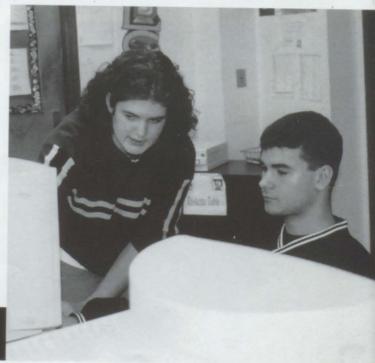

Rookie Samantha Nesmith works hard on her spread to turn it in before deadline. Samantha's spreads were always turned in on time.

Senior Editor Lauren Hendon helps new staff member Eric Jones on his layout. It took a while for new members to get adjusted to the Ultravision program.

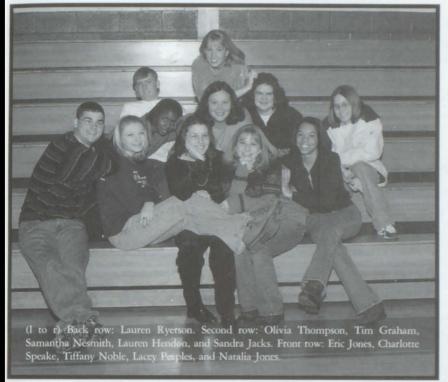

Co-editor Lauren Ryerson makes a rough draft of her spread. These were helpful when all the computers were tied up.

We Didn't Start the Fire

eadlines, Ultravision, Ms. Trip oh my! Yearbook staffers were troubled with all sorts of hassles this year. With more than half of the staff rookies, extra time and work helped make the yearbook even better than last year. The new sponsor, Angela Triplett, worked hard to make sure the staff kept in line, while editors Lauren Hendon and Lauren Rverson checked spreads for errors. Different people held different duties such as business editor. Tiffany Noble held that position and kept up with the money for the staff. Eric Jones helped take pictures and Lacey Peeples could always be seen on the phone solving problems with Taylor or Bill Miller. Overall, without all the work put in by each member the yearbook wouldn't be possible.

Yearbook sponsor Angela Triplett gives Natalia Jones and Sandra Jacks their grades. Ms. Tripp always made time for fun in class.

Kicking Up The Ashes

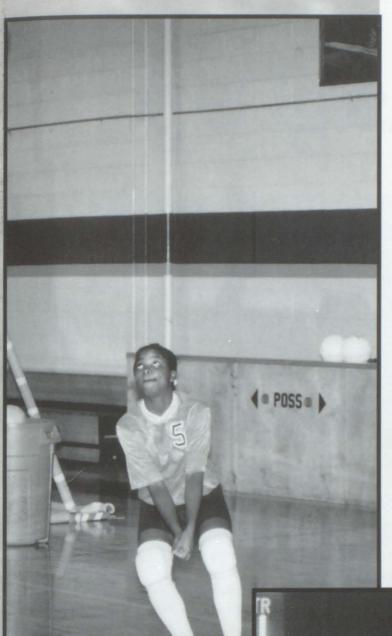

As you can see, the players always had a good time at practice. Kyle Henderson and Leonard Fulgham represent this fact very well as they rocket down the court while doing drills.

Sophomore Stefanie Morlan sets up to make a flaming free throw. Every point was necessary this year for the Lady Bulldogs to have success and to move on to greater heights.

Excellent pitching equals success. This was proven true as the softball team accomplished many victories by throwing fiery fastballs past their opponents.

he Montevallo Bulldogs are a team name exploding to be heard of, and with seasons boasting some outstanding numbers their goal was accomplished. With the football team reaching new levels, the Bulldogs are a team name that everyone around the state should be familiar with by now. They reached even higher then before when they achieved a presence in the second round of the state playoffs. They finished their season at an awesome record of 9-3.

The Varsity Basketball team ended their season on a flaming note. They finished second in the county tournament only to be out done by Briarwood after having another great season under the direction of head coach Bobby Pierson. The Varsity Girls team had their own shining moments under the direction of head coach Johnye Horton.

As for the Volleyball team, they had an exceptional season and played well in the county tournament. The team was under the direction of coach Stephanie Bolling.

The baseball, softball, tennis, and golf teams also had a great year as they finished their seasons with excellent numbers on the board.

Freshmen Milli Huff sets up to blast the incoming ball. Although their season went by quick, the team really enjoyed the experience.

This years team of Bulldogs were always psyched up as they came onto the field. The team appeared to have rockets in their shoes as they were propelled into the second round of the playoffs.

Flaming Up

Junior Chris Shepherd rushes down the field while breaking tackles to score for the Bulldogs. Chris was a vital part of the teams winning efforts. he Varsity Football team blazed up the field this year with their awesome plays and a pure determination to win. Under the leadership of Head
Coach Charles Boren
the Dawgs went on to have a 9-3 record.
With the help of such great senior players as Leonard Fulgham,

Thad Walker, and Kyle Henderson the Bulldogs made it all the way to the second round of the playoffs where they just fell short to Thomasville with a score of 21-6. Robert Hope, a Junior, said "The practices were a lot of hard work, but we were unable to accomplish all of our goals. Overall though it was a successful season."

TOUGH

Junior Brian Ford practices his kicking technique during one of the football teams numerous summer practices. This was Brians first year to be a member of the football team.

the Field

The Season Summed Up.....

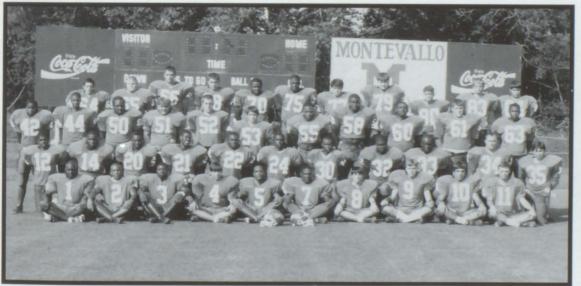

"We had a good season and I was happy that we made it as far in the playoffs as we did." —Senior Leonard Fulgham

"It was a lot of hard work and it was even harder for me because it was my first year at this school and I had to get to know all of the guys. It was a good year but hopefully through hard work we will be even better next year." - Sophomore Andrew Pickett

"I really enjoyed my senior year even though I wish that we could have won the championships." —Senior D.J. Williams

Varsity Football

Back (I to r): J. Horton, B. Boothe, K. Santa Cruz, J. Hardin, D. Sailes, J. Mitchell, K. Czeskleba, J. Harris, A. Tingle, B. Ford, C. Register. Third row: J. Rutledge, D. Sanders, R. Ray, J. Woodruff, C. Horton, J. Tucker, D. Williams, T. Smith, W. Mcneal, B. Lovejoy, T. Sullens. Forth row: G. Reed, B. Hudson, P. Gilmore, G. Rutledge, C. Shepard, A. Brown, G. McKenzie, P. Chappell, S. Davis, B. Graham, J. Kamerer. Front: V. Green, K. Henderson, L. Fulgum, W. Nelson, A. Dubose, K. Kirkland, P. Nix, A. Pickett, T. Walker, and R. Hope

Exploding

ith fire in their eyes, the little Dawgs played a season to remember. With much practice and determination they strove to play their best. Even though they had a record of 2-6, the amount of effort put into the season outweighed the results. The team fought hard against their opponents with as much aggression as they could summon up while waiting patiently for their victory. Robert Jenkins and Steve Smitherman gave a new perspective to coaching while assisting Johnve Horton with the training of our young team. So with an excellent team, the season was an explosion!

With a exploding kick, Jeremy Noble awaits the ball for an onside kick. This was Jeremy's first year as kicker.

With ball in hand and a roaring attitude, the Bulldogs work to win a goal against Thompson. With a burning desire to win, the Bulldogs worked hard to perfect their game.

The Bulldogs give it all their might to keep their fire burning. The Bulldogs came out roaring with a victory over John Carroll.

'Push them back, push them back way back!" Montevallo played tough and tried to show our opponents that we meant business.

Rhea Broadhead takes off with a fiery leap to gain ten yards for the Bulldogs. Rhea was one of the key members of the team to lead it on to the victory against John Carroll.

Pulling out all the tricks of the trade, the Bulldogs stop West Blockton from coming up with a first down. Much frustration was evoked while playing this game.

Top Row (L-R) J. Hill, J. Noble, R. Gilbert, E. Chappell, C. Moore, S. Hoots, S. Dunaway, Second Row (L-R) A. Noble, R. Pennington, A. Hudson, J. Prentice, A. Williams, M. Durham, B. Duff, D. Garlinger, R. Broadhead, J. Dickson, Third Row (L-R) M. Harris, S. Juarez, S. Carlee, C. Wallace, D. Simone, J. Woodruff, J. Goggins, S. Monk, W. Easterling, R. Pennington, D. Heath, Bottom Row (L-R) D. Devall, A. Staab, B. Hyer, P. King, C. Taylor, J. Northcutt, C. Pickett, L. Chappell, J. San Roman

The Hoops

his past year the Bulldogs have been like a flaming wall of fire, never wanting to be extinguished by even the toughest of opponents. Led by their fiery coach, Bobby Pierson, the Bulldogs did well in the regular season. In the state tournament, the Bulldogs were fired up and played awesome but ended up falling a little short. Concentration was a major key to success this year as the Bulldogs listened to their coach and strived to get every point that they could possibly get to attain the highest of honors.

Senior Bulldogs especially wanted their last year playing for Montevallo High School to be a memorable one. It was always known to be game day when the student body could look around and see finely dressed 'Dogs walking around the campus. It will be hard for some teachers to let their Seniors go as many special bonds were formed between them. Although the season has come and past, the flames in the Bulldogs hearts will be lit eternally.

Doing a flaming dunk was a fashionable way to score this year. Scoring points this year was tough, but the Bulldogs always found the light at the end of the tunnel to victory.

It can be seen in Junior Gary Reed's eyes that the ball is going through the hoop. It was important to the team this year to get every free throw opportunity that they could so that they could insure a victory.

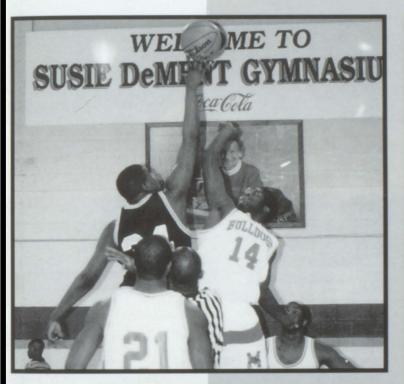

Are On Fire

Varsity Basketball: back row (I to r) Crystal McKitchen, Yteria Tolbert, Coach Bobby Pierson, Bryant Hudson, Keaton Santa Cruz, Deametrice Sanders, Travis Smith, Leonard Fulgham, Seneca Davis, Kenny Dukes, Telisha Haff. front row: Verrick Green, Rico Fitts, Kyle Henderson, Kentonio Kirkland, Gary Reed.

Senior Bulldog Kyle Henderson shows that he knows what it takes to score two points. Even with defenders in their faces, the team came through to win the game.

Bryant Hudson shows off his rocket pack as he soars to get the tip-off. The Bulldogs showed off their skills as they were needed to claim victory.

Blazin'

he Lady Bulldogs began their season with their first win against Pelham in the Pelham Thanksgiving Tournament. The Dawgs also took the first place prize in Jemison at the Jemison Christmas Tournament Championships. The Lady Bulldogs consists of one freshman, four sophomores, and four juniors. With no seniors returning to the team, Coach Johnye Horton calls this season "a rebuilding year." The girls also won the first round of the Area Tournaments against Childersburg.

Junior Tami spruel dribbles down the court during another dedicated practice. Tami was also named the Shelby County All-Tournament team.

Sophomore Stephanie Morlan steps up in an attempt to make a free throw.

The Lady Dawgs perform their warm-up drill before their game against Dallas County at home.

Baskets

Lady Bulldogs (l-r) Managers: Markela Lawley, Dana Bice. Molly Walker, Tami Spruel, Tiffany Goldsmith, Monique Jones, Savoyia McNeal, Stefanie Morlan, Pam Gross, Latonya Coleman, Summer Averhart. Manager: Tomika Lilly.

HOT

Gabriel Rutledge comtemplates on whether passing the ball to his teammate or shooting the ball. The team works together to win the game.

Lawerence Lilly, Gabriel Rutledge, and Emmett Chappell work together to keep the ball away from there opponents. They will finish this game with hard work and determination.

V BasketBall players ths year have rock the boat in their outstanding plays and team work. Lawerence Lilly said,"We started off slow, but as the year progressed we became a better team." They finished the year winning 11 games and losing 7. These players have had a successful year and are looking forward to their fierce competition for next years games. Coach Raybon said, "I enjoyed the year working with a confident team.

JV Boys: Manager: Crystal McKitchens. Bryant Duff, Gabe Rutledge, Lawrence Lilly, Emmitt Chappell, Jarvis Davis, Aireal Goins.

Freshmen Girls: (l-r) Manager: Natalie Dubose, Back row: Adrian Jones, Desare Chappell, Samantha Nix, Katie Gothard, Kendell Ingram, Lori Pickett, Sarah McMinn.Manager: Ashley Ebrahimi. Front row: Shonkita Moore, Dale Flowers, Santana Smith, Cambria Smith, Millicent Huff, Alicia Brown, and Tonya Thompson.

Freshmen Boys: (I-r) Sloan Monk, Jamie Prentice, Antonio Williams, Ronnie Gilbert, Cecil Kirkland, Marcus Gilbert, Lionel Ray, Aaron Staab. Front row: Tony Thompson, Jay Gilbert, Chris Stano, Demetrius Agee, Martell Lilly, and Leon Chappell.

Lawerence Lilly quickly blocks the shot that the Hornets attempt to make. The rebound belonged to Montevallo due to their team effort and rebound ability.

Flames on the Court

he Lady Bulldogs volleyball team had a new and exciting season this year. With practice starting in the summer, the 'Dogs were ready when the new season began. With new coach Stephanie Bolling, the team was hyped up and ready for a fresh start. They experienced great wins and heart-breaking losses.

Under the wise teachings of captain Erin Houser, the Bulldogs tried to achieve greatness.

Several good players were lost, but the Bulldogs also aquired new and fresh talent. Over the summer they practiced hard on serving, spikes, and volleying the ball to prepare themselves. During the season, all the training paid off. Although it was not a record-setting season, everyone on the team went and played to the best of their ability.

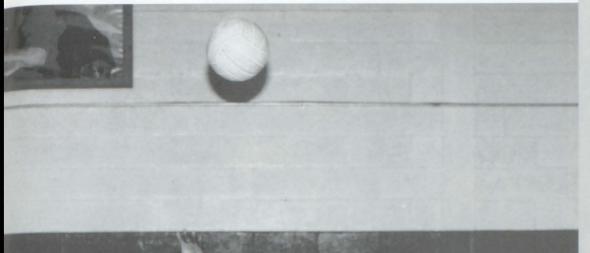

The Lady Bulldogs might have lost some games, but they won some too. It all helped them to have more experience and the future looks bright.

Lady Bulldogs TOURNAMENTS

Area Tournament vs. Midfield 13-15, 13-15 vs. Midfield 15-5, 3-15, 15-6 vs. Jemison 15-12, 15-11 vs. Jemison 11-15, 9-15

Region Tournament vs. Holt 7-15, 9-15 vs. Carbon Hill 10-15, 4-15 vs. Hayden 13-15, 15-7, 12-15 The Lady Bulldogs stand up for the crowd at a pep rally. Pictured (left to right) are: Erin Houser, Saovyia McNeal, Jessica Elm, Nikki Jones, Milli Huff, Dana Bice, Jennifer Broadnax, and La' Tonya Coleman (not pictured: Tami Spruel).

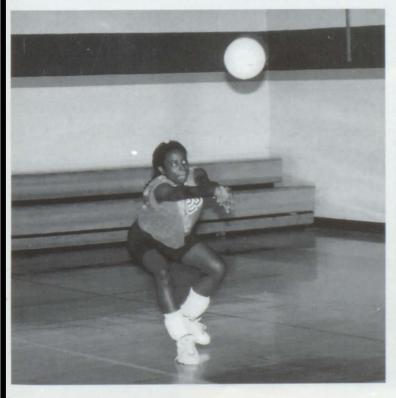

Savoyia McNeal and Dana Bice practice volleying the ball back and forth to refine their skills. The team went on to play at two tournaments this year, the Area and Region tournaments.

La'Tonya Coleman is quick to return the ball and show off her skills. The team practiced hard all year around and the work paid off.

Milli Huff shows her fiery determination as she concentrates on the ball. The team showed how they gave their best at every game.

Tami Spruel practices hard to get ready for the upcoming games. The Lady Bulldogs work hard all season long and it paid off

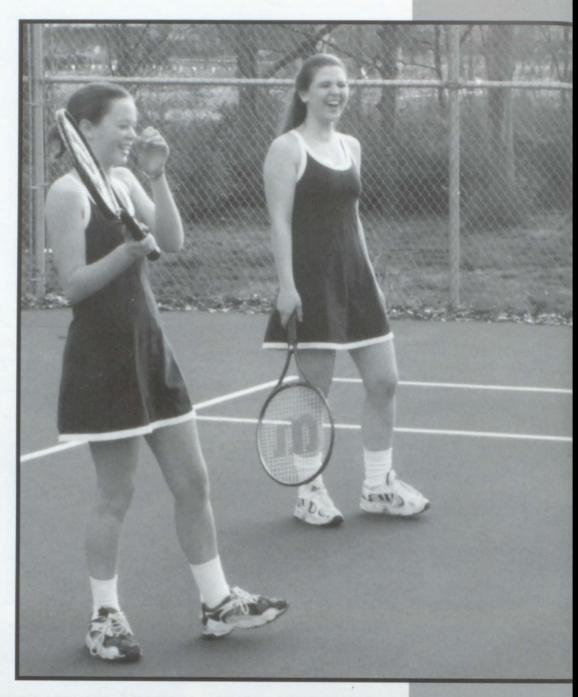

Volleyball 95

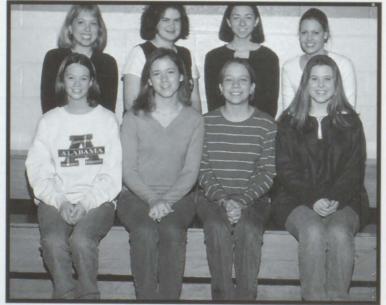

Kristen Stewart and Rebecca Wyatt prove that fun can be had on the court. They performed well together in doubles.

Laura Nannini anticipates hitting the tennis ball. This was Laura's second year on the team.

Tennis team: (I-r) Lauren Ryerson, Lauren Hendon, Jane Walker, Stephanie Bach, Rebecca Wyatt, Lacey Horsley, Laura Nannini, and Kristen Stewart.

Sweltering Swings

he tennis team consisted of eight members this year, with Robert Jenkins as coach. Headed with two Seniors: Lauren Ryerson and Lauren Hendon, four Juniors: Lacey Horsley, Jane Walker, Laura Nannini, and Stephanie Bach, and two Sophomores: Kristen Stewart and Rebecca Wyatt, the team was able to compete with the best. Practice lasted from 3:20 to 5:20 everyday. They worked on drills that helped their forehand, backhand, and serve, as well as running sprints at the end of practice. Even while being a first year tennis coach, Robert Jenkins prepared the girls for any competition. He scheduled the team with fourteen games, as well as sectionals, etc. The girls played teams like Pelham, John Carroll, Jemison, and Chelsea, and always held their own. With hard work and dedication, the tennis team had an exciting and rewarding season.

Lauren Hendon dives for a hard ball. This was her fourth year on the team and was the fourth seed.

The girls pose for a camera shot. Luckily the girls were all friends this year.

The Hot Mix

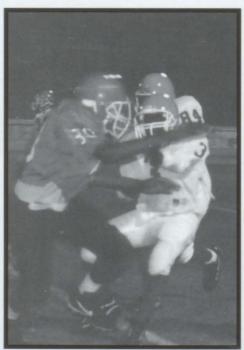

here are several sports to play at MHS. They all take hard work, dedication, and a good attitude. This year our players gave their all to be top notch. Each team had to practice frequently in order to be successful. The Bulldogs had many things to be proud of this year. They went in to do their best, fearlessly, and they were not disappointed. Whether they brought home a victory or returned with a loss, they always had the support of their fans.

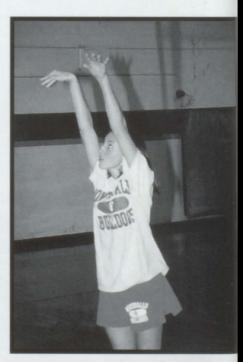

Willie McNeal relaxes after a hard game. Relaxation was enjoyed by all the Bulldogs.

Number 22, Kyle Henderson, watches as the ball swishes through the net. He helped lead the Bulldogs to another victory.

Number 32, Adrian Hudson, runs past the 30 yard line to gain ground against the Thompson Warriors. This game taught the J.V. team that "winning isn't everything."

Sarah McMinn, a Freshman Lady Bulldog, practices for t next game. She and her teammates had a great season.

Demetrious "Meatball" Sanders jumps high in the air to make the ball reach the goal without disturbance from the opposition. They brought home the victory once again.

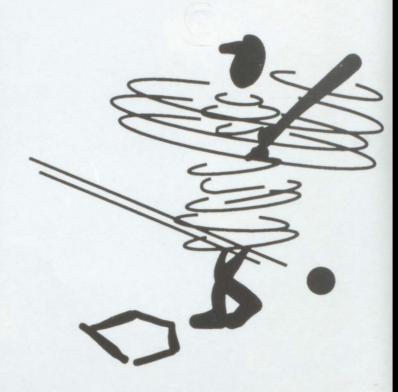

Exchange student Stefanie Bach and Kristen Stewart play doubles as they practice their hot moves. The tenis team played and looked great as always.

Feel the Burn!!!

he baseball team had a great beginning this year as they started practice in early February. Although the team lost several senior players, they had plenty of new talent to train for the long season ahead. Under head coach Kevin Raybon, the 'Dogs were ready to take on anything. Practice began with the usual: how to catch, throw, and run.

Every person on the team had to work hard and do their part to make the team as successful as possible. The pitchers practiced their throwing and catching skills and every team member had a chance to bat. They worked hard and it showed. All the hard work payed off and team was ready to face the upcoming season. They met the challenge head on and played to the best of their abilities.

Coach Raybon lends a few team members some friendly advice. All year long the team listened the wise teachings of Coach Raybon.

The whole team works on improving their throwing skills. They team had several great pitchers and catchers this year.

Players try to improve on perfection by practicing hitting home runs. There were several blazing outfield hits this year.

Team members begin to head in after a hard days work. All of the hard practicing paid off and the team had a good season.

Settin' the Field on Fire

Baseball 101

Coach Jett goes over what the team willbe doing for the rest of the day. All of the players were expected to do what the coach scheduled for that day.

Sophomore Tiffany Hamburg catches a low ball from the first baseman. She practiced hard to ensure a winning season for the Bulldogs.

GROUP PICTURE

Softball: (I-r) back row: Lacey Peeples, Tracy Ennis, Sara McMinn, Tonya Thompson, Tiffany Hamburg, Kristen Simcik. 2nd row: Courtney Brasher, Erica Cain, Molly Walker, Markela Lawley, Stephanie Morlan, Kendall Ingram. Front row: Katie Hall, Sandra Jacks, Lindsey Barnes, Jessica Honeycuff, and Brooke McGibboney.

Warming up is a regular and important thing for Juniors Brittany Hall and Courtney Brasher. They both felt like it was necessary to warm up before every practice and game.

In a Blaze

ome Run!
This is what the softball
team heard the crowd
roar as they hit one ball
after the other.

The team worked hard to get the hit that made the crowd scream with excitement. These Lady Bulldogs practiced almost everyday at Orr Park and worked vigorously to make improvements on their offense and defense. "I really liked how we practiced everyday because it really helped me when it came to

"I really liked how we practiced everyday because it really helped me
when it came to
gametime," exclaims
Freshmen Lindsay Barnes.

game time," exclaimed Freshmen Lindsay Barnes.

The two coaches on the team helped the players recognize what they were doing wrong and how to correct it. Working with the Bulldogs were Shelia Jett (head coach) and Nan Franks (assistant coach). Both of the coaches worked hard at every practice and every game to help the players work together as a team.

From all the hard work and tremendous effort put into their season, this team was surely working In a Blaze.

Pulling hard, Freshmen Lindsey Barnes puts the equipment back into place at the end of the day. She helped out the team in anyway she could.

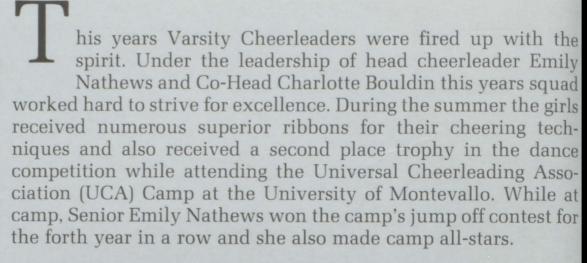

Kristen Simcik waits anxiously for the pitcher to throw the ball to her so they can practice. Since Kristen worked hard at practice, she went on to be a great catcher for the Lady Bulldogs.

Fired Up

Varsity Cheerleaders

with Spirit

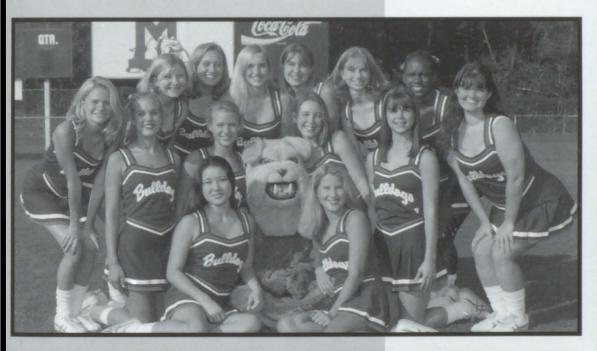

Senior Cheerleaders Jessica Ballentine, Tracy Ennis, Charlotte Bouldin, and Emily Nathews pep up the crowd at the Homecoming pep rally. They all displayed wonderful leadership throughout their senior year of cheerleading.

Varsity Cheerleaders Back (1 to r): Courtney Brasher, Charlotte Speake, Holly Dickson, Georgia Nicholson, Tracy Ennis, Lacey Peeples, Fallon Brantley, Amber Lackey Middle: Jordan McNeely, Emily Nathews, Charlotte Bouldin, Kelly Damon Front: Jessica Ballentine, Kim Bright.

Sparking

he Junior Varsity cheerleaders had a very exciting year. Last years group was mixed with several new comers to make an astounding 15 sparkling spiritors. All 15 recruits went to UCA camp this summer to learn the ranks. The older members helped the "tresh fish" learn sturts, master motions, and how to work as a team. The group came away with several superior ribbons and a second place finish in the dance category. Sophomore Emily Brown said "I enjoyed working with the new girls and teaching them how to have a good attitude." This statement proves that this half and half squad pushed themselves to the limit to do their best.

Head-Stephanie Jones

Co Head-Erica Cain

Co Head-Julynn Bradshaw

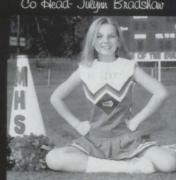

Cheer & Dance Coordinator-Emily Brown Emily Haslett

Christin Buttel Nikki Huggins

Katherine Champion Kira Minnick

Michelle Goolsby Raven Reed

The girls cheer their way to yet another superior ribbon. In fact they received several ribbons and a few trophies.

Sophomores Katherine Champion E Emily Brown sit and talk with Treshmen Jennifer Stephens while enjoying a refreshing glass of Poweraid. The cheerleaders always savor their chance for a long refreshment.

Amber Gul Jennither Stephens

1998-99Jr. Vansity Cheenleadens: 3nd Row-Kina Minnick, Julynn Bradshaw, Emily Haslett, Kathenine Champion, 2nd Row-Jennigen Stephens, Raven Reed, Nikki Huggens, Amber Gul, Christin Buttel 1stRow-

Michelle Goolsby, Exica Cain, Stephanie Jones, Emily Brown

Christin Buttel proudly smiles to the crowd to show off her spirit. These first time girls enjoyed their chance to cheer for the bulldags.

Fuel For

Gilmore III, Presley: FFA, FCA, Football, Track, Baseball, Basketball, VICA
Gouge, Robert Alan: FFA

Hall, Andrea Dawn: NHS, Mass Comm. Harrell, Keisha Laneigh Ray: NHS, Mass Comm.

Harris, Alicia Michelle Harris, John W: Football, Track., FFA. Band Henderson, Kyle Donnell: Peer Helpers. Football.

The Senior Class would like to say, Senior Index

The Flame

Cheerleader
Sisco, Donny Ray: FFA
Smith, Travis Tyrel: FFA,FCA, Football, Basketball, Track
Smith, Wendy Christina: First Priority, FCA
Stallworth, DuRon Desha: FFA
Stano, Charles Brian: FFA, VICA
Stano, Steven Alan
Sumerlin, Thomas Renaldo: Basketball, Football
Taylor, Audrey Denise: FHA
Thompson, Dora Elizabeth: Key Club, FCA, First
Priority, FHA, NHS, Student Council, Math Team,
Mass Comm., Cheerleader
Thompson, Kelly Elizabeth: Journalism
Tingle, Virginia Grace: Track, Cross Country, VICA, FFA, Spanish Club
Tolbert, Frank
Tolbert, Yteria Devon: Volleyball, Yearbook, Student Council, Peer Helpers, Basketball, Math
Team, FCA

Williams, Andrea Eugenia: FBLA
Williams Jr., Dennis James: Football, Basketball, Weightlifting
Williams, Melissa Irene: FFA, FBLA
Williams, Rhonda Denay: HOSA.
Winslett, Heather Elizabeth: VICA, Flag Corp,

"Thank You, Mrs. Daum, For All You Do!"

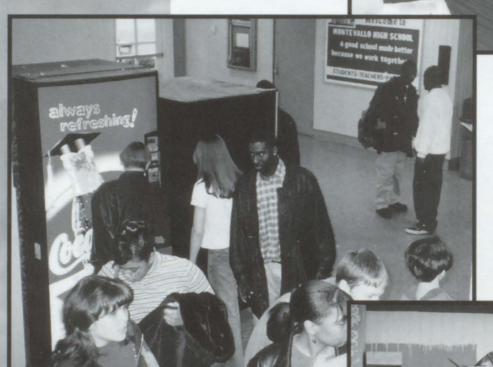

Senior Index

Pipin' Hot Patrons

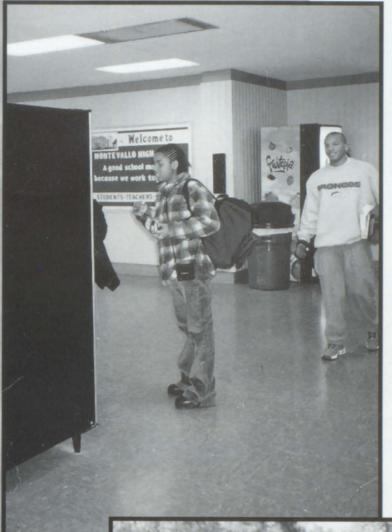

Holly Dickson and Tiffany Noble enjoy Coke at the A-B honor roll reception. Because of their support, Coca-Cola is seen everywhere around school.

Students gather around the snack machines between classes. Buffalo Rock provided the snacks and Coke machines for the school.

Mass Communications students prepare for the broadcast. The school board provided the new equipment in place of the stolen goods.

e, the Montala Staff would like to thank all of the sponsors for their generous contributions. Without everyone ones support their would not be a successful yearbbook. Advertisments is the most sufficient way to produce the current styles and activities. Ad are determined cost by size and page they are as follows: 1/16 is $20, and 300 for an entire page, etc. Baby ads are also purchased by size. Last but not least we would like to thank all businesses for there support, we are very thankful, Montala Staff members.

Anitra Cutts happily eats her Cheez-its. She was just one more satisfied customer by the snack machine.

These girls dress up in McDonald's attire. McDonald's is a big supporter of the high school.

Congratulations!

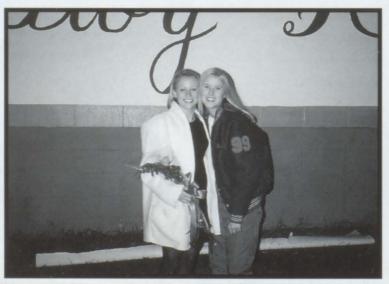

Kyle Henderson
Football, Basketball, Baseball
Most Valuable Receiver 97'
4 Year Football Scholarship
at University of West Alabama
We're so proud of you!
Good Luck
Mom, Kacy, Kayla

Congratulations Kim and Emma! Love B.J., Willie, Bill, and Gail

Always a Hit! Always Coca-Cola!

Compliments of:

BIRMINGHAM COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

Our "Tiny Dancer" is all grown up! Congratulations and good luck on future performances.

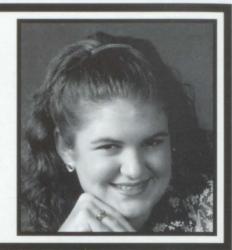

We love you! Mom, Dad, Kristen and Bud

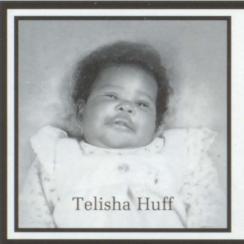

Dear Lauren,
Words cannot express how much we love you and how proud we are of you. You have been a joy and a blessing. It is amazing how quickly you went from being our precious little girl to the amazing young woman you are.

Love always, Mom, Dad and Bobby

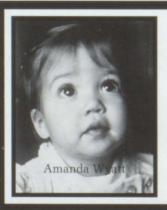

God loves you in a special way.
This ad is from your Mom and your sis Nita. We just want to say,
may you be blessed with joy,
peace, and happiness, and we pray to God for guidance along the way.

Love, Niola and Nita

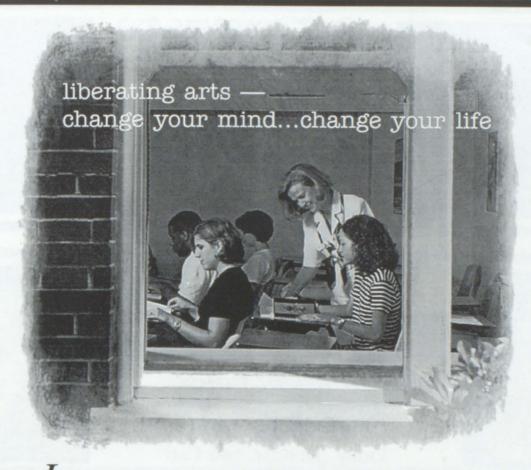

You are everything we could have ever hoped for. We are so very proud of you. may all of your dreams come true.

Love, Daddy, Jan, Rebecca, and Rob

iberal arts colleges can change your mind. In fact, they can change your life. The liberal arts can liberate the intellect, taking you on adventures in learning limited only by your imagination, and adventures in living made possible by a sound education.

Every day, liberal arts colleges are preparing students to think...create... discover...explore...to solve problems. Small classes, modern curricula and exceptional professors are hallmarks of a liberal arts education.

The University of Montevallo is Alabama's public liberal arts university. Our emphasis on the liberal arts does more than prepare students for a career. It prepares them for change. It prepares them for life.

Montevallo - changing your mind; changing your life.

The University of Montevallo

Alabama's Public Liberal Arts University

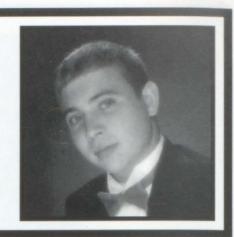

Educating for Life

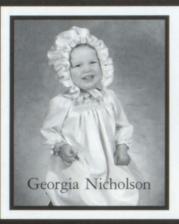

To request a Viewbook or schedule a tour of campus, call (205) 665-6030 or 1-800-292-4349. Visit our web site at http://www.montevallo.edu/.

BEST WISHES TO OUR FAUORITE SENIORS!

Love, Mom, Dad, Jessica, Aunt Trisha, Uncle Jerry, and Jessica

Georgia,
You always shine wherever you are! We are proud of you and your bright future!
We love you very much,

Mom, Mike, Chase, Emily, Jennifer, and Carl

Congratulations

Troop Love, Miss Connie

Red, Good Luck in all your future plans, but let God be first. We love you.

We love you.

Love,

Carrie, Carlos, Jolinda, and Tweety Bird.

Emest Meta

- . SALES

ALL MAKES & MODELS

CLEAN USED CARS AND TRUCKS

• SERVICE

· BODY SHOP

REPAIRS ON ALL MAKES AND MODELS

We Specialize in...

Repeat Customers

663-3831

HIGHWAY 31 ALABASTER

Body Shop Hours:

Sales Department Hours 9:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. Monday thru Friday
9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Saturday
Parts & Service Hours: 7:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. Monday thru Friday
7:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. Saturday
Body Shop Hours: 7:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Monday thru Friday

7:00 a.m. until Noon Saturday

GEORGE S. ROBERTS

PRESIDENT

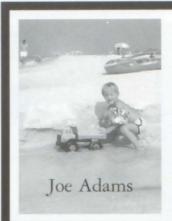

P.O. BOX 152 CALERA, AL 35040 TEL: 205-668-2271 1-800-537-4621

FAX: 205-668-4012

BEEPER: 869-0987

Kelly, may god bless you and keep you. We love you, and are very proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad

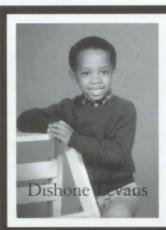

Congratulations "Jo-Bo". We love you! Barbara and Bud

Heather,

You are the light of our lives. Remember to always follow your heart and believe in yourself. We love you.

Mama, Grandma, and Papa.

Congratulations
"Bootie-Man"
We love you!
Angela, Naomi,
Cora, Corazon,
Tremail

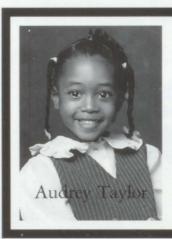

Melissa.

Congratulations! We are so proud of the wonderful person you have become. Good luck with every thing you do an always remember we love you very much.

Love.

Mom, Dad, and Rachel.

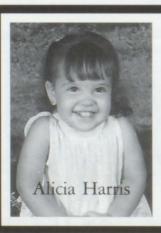

Nise,

Congratulations and good luck in the future. We love you and our baby nephew/grandson.

Love,

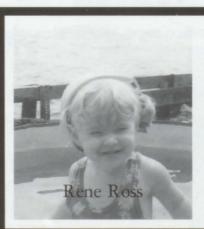

Mom, Rodney, and Sugar.

Alicia

Congratulations! We are so proud of you. Reach for your dreams and always remember how much we love you!

Love, Mom, Dad, & Ryan

Dear Rene-

18 years of happy & sad, laughter & tears, we are so proud of all you have acheived. We love you lots!

Mom, Dad, Debbie, Amy, & Sam. LUCKY'S FOODLAND PLUS 665-5124

WE ACCEPT VISA, DISCOVER AND MASTERCARD.

WE ARE ALSO A WESTERN UNION AGENT.

RAY SISCO CONST. CO., INC.

Loader & Dozer Work • Basements

Clear Land

Haul Rock, Dirt, Fines • Driveway Work

RAY SISCO

Hwy. 25 • Rt. 1, Box 234 Brierfield, AL 35035-9737

205-665-2504

Day or Night

CRESOTE & PENTA
CROSSTIES - POLES - LUMBER - INDUSTRIAL TIMBER

CAHABA PRESSURE TREATED FOREST PRODUCTS, INC.

Route 1, Hwy. 25 Brierfield, Alabama 35035

Office: 926-9888

926-9887

Fax: 926-7625

KERMIT STEPHENS

ALL SIZES AND LENGTHS

An Education that Works.

Earn your Associate of Applied Science degree in:

- Computer-Aided Drafting Technology
- · Electronics Engineering Technology

ITT Technical Institute ITT (205) 991-5410

500 Riverhills Business Park Birmingham, AL 35242

My childhood picture rides safely in my pocket.

I hold her when she needs comfort.

I fight for her when she needs defending.

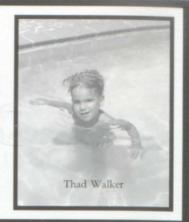

I love her. . . so that I can move forward. . . with love instead of hate, forgiveness instead of dispair.

All expectations

Thad,
Your last 18 years have been rewarding to us! We look forward to your future!

Love, Dad, Mom, & Molly Proverbs 3: 5 & 6

Erica, my baby,

drain at last from a pained heart,

love and hope remain.

Where has all the time gone? It seems like yesterday you were a bundle in my arms, now you're a beautiful young lady. You have always been the very best part of my life and you always will be. Remember forever how much we love you!

Love, Mom, Dave, and Nicholas

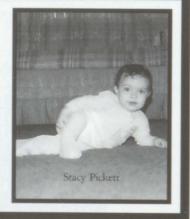

Congratulations,
Perry!
Love,
Mom, Dad,
Jill, and Baker

Stacy,

Congratulations on your graduation! You are a very special young lady that we are very proud of. We pray that you always keep your faith in God and keep your goals in life high.

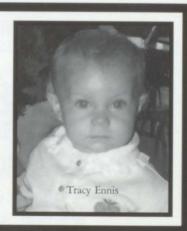

We Love You, Dad, Mom, and Holly

Tracy,
Growing up, I had a dream.
The dream came true . . .
Her name is Nikki.
We are so proud of you. You have outdone yourself!
Congratulations!!
We love you so much.

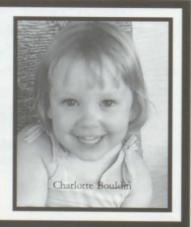

We love you so much.

Mom, Dad, Kasey, Jeannie, and Tyler

Charlotte (Charlie Brown), Thank you for the joy and happiness you have given to us. We wish you all the success. God bless you always.

> Love, Mom and Dad

Erin,
My girl with the
"golden curls,"
I love you and
I am proud of you!
Mama

Congratulation to the 1999 Senior Class

Compliments of

Blue Circle Cement

Calera, Alabama

Supporting
Quality Education
& Community Service

PRESSURE TREATED FOREST PRODUCTS

Creosote

EAMAN TIMBER COMPANY INC.

Since 1955

P. O. Box 372 1025 Highway 25 So. 205/665-2536 Montevallo, AL 35115

Conserve the Forest

Preserve the Wood

NUTRENA FEEDS

A Co splete Line of Feed, Fertilizer, Lawn & Garden Supplies
Animal Health Products • Horse Tack
Garden & Field Seed • Night Light & Wick Supplies

MONTEVALLO FARM CENTER

635 Shelby Street . Montevallo, Alabama 35115

BUSINESS (205) 665-4960

Compliments of

Specification Rubber Products

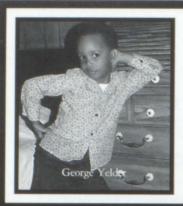

MIKE & MARCI YOUNG

3543 Pelham Parkway Pelham, Alabama 35124 (205) 663-1415

Vallo Plaza Montevallo, Alabama

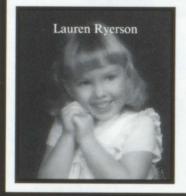

665-2712

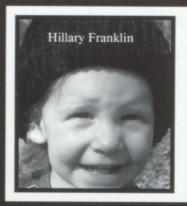

Best wishes always, George. We love you, Nu! G-mama, Cathy, and family.

Congratulations
Jessica! We are very proud of you. Good luck in whatever you pursue. Be the best you can be. Love, Mom and Dad.

Congratulations
Lauren! May all your dreams come true! We are so proud of you!
Love Mom, Dad, and
Erin

We are so very proud of you!
When the going gets tough,
the tough get going! You have proven this! I love you very much, and I know you will achieve your heart's desires! Love Mom, Jennifer and Shannon

955 Main Street

Montevallo, AL 35115

(205) 665-2031

Fax (205) 665-5560

CZESKLEBA T.V. SERVICE
Expert T.V. Repair — All Makes
Burglar Alarm Sales & Service
Swimming Pool Supplies & Liners
Installed
Satellite Sales and Service
WALT CZESKLEBA 665 Main Street
Owner Montevallo, AL 35115

LOWE & ASSOCIATES REALTY, INC.

101 MILDRED . COLUMBIANA, ALABAMA 35051

DAVID PORTER

OFFICE 205/669-6317 DIG. BEEPER 205/209-4912

Home 205/665-1214

PAUL'S DIAMOND CENTER

Between Wal-Mart and Eckerd's Pelham-Alabaster

665-4400

MARVIN'S INC. - PELHAM

3150 Lee Street Pelham, AL 35124 Phone: 205-664-2481 Fax: 205-664-0324 Fine Art

Discount Framing

CE GALLERY

Old Town Helena KENT FREE

620-2787

800-686-2787

Congratulations Graduating Seniors

> VIC'S PIZZA

Open seven days a week til midnight.

665-1043

THE MAGNOLIA TREE

MONTEVALLO DRUG

660 Middle St. Montevallo, AL

665-1261 BILL FORD

DR. MICHAEL S. MILLER

640 Valley Street Montevallo, Alabama 35115

Seniors blow up with excitement at one of the last pep rallies they will attend. Many Seniors are glad to be leaving while other are sad that its all over.

Juniors Courtney Brasher, Katie McMinn, and Brian Ford take a little break from the broadcast to have a little fun. Next year they will be Seniors and thinking of nothing but graduation.

Senior Emily Nathew reaches for the sky during a stunt for the Homecoming pep rally. This reach was one of her last.

The Smoke has cleared

Senior Leonard Fulgham jumps for the shot. These were just a few of his last shots made for Montevallo High.

n May 28th the Class of 1999 said goodbye to Montevallo High School. After twelve years of school we were finished. Some of us dreamed of being lawyers, doctors or teachers, but whatever we dreamed it was time to move on and meet the Real World. It was time to leave our familiar surroundings, familiar faces and longtime friends behind and leave and go our own ways. Our paths may cross in the future but now it is time to conquer the most overwhelming experience in our lives. Senior Telisha Huff quotes "I am just so happy to be leaving!" Many of the Seniors are ready to graduate and move on with their lives while others were scared but excited to be moving on into the Real World. After spending many years together, it was time for the class of 1999 to leave each other. The smoke from the halls had cleared and it was time to move on. Some of them cried for the experience while others just joked about it. McShan Walker simply stated "No mo' Theodore!" With tears in their eyes, the Class of 1999 walked proudly across the stage to recieve their diploma and finally move on.

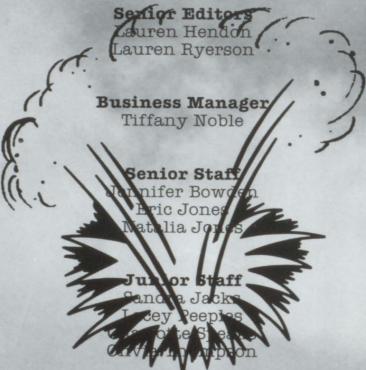

When the Smoke Clears

The 1999 Montala yearbook was accom- Montala. The yearbook was almost nonexis plished with the help of twelve staff members ent, until the students and faculty saved it l

the yearbook was decided by the staff in reference to the remodeling of sections of the school, which proved to be beneficial during the year. The major problem, this year, was finding people to buy the and Angela Triplett as sponsor. The theme of buying the amount of yearbooks necessar

Angela Triplett

Once that dilemm was solved, the sta began to design th pages of the yearboo With stress and fru tration, the spread were finished, one b one, and sent to Ta lor Publishing Con pany to be printed.

Sophomore Staff Tim Graham Samantha Nesmith

For the year of Nineteen bundred and ninty-nine

